Newlyweds
Off to Bermuda

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Marjorie Holland Graf and James Lawrence Davidow. The Rev. William Norvell performed the 2:30 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 300 guests.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Graf of Wibleton drive, Birmingham. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry S. Davidow of Huntington Woods.

The bride wore a gown fashioned of Italian silk in ivory tone with re-embroidered alencon lace outlining the high Victorian neckline and short sleeves of matching lace. Her silk illusion veil was secured by a pill box of matching silk and lace. She carried white roses, stephanotis and English ivy confided with a white orchid.

ANN B. GRAF, maid of honor, wore a short gown of American Beauty satin. Princess lines of the dress were accented by the sunburst effect of the satin. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenia and English ivy.

Bridesmaids were Gayle Smith and Ann Duffield. They wore identical gowns as the maid of honor.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Graf chose a silver-blue silk organza street length dress with matching accessories. Her corsage consisted of white roses.

Mrs. Davidow selected a periwinkle blue Italian raw silk dress with accessories to match and a corsage of pink roses and ivy.

The new Mrs. Davidow donned a two piece gray and brown light weight wool dress for her wedding trip to Bermuda. They will reside in Indian Village.
