Sept. 28 Welcome Home Dinner for Cong. Broomfield

A "Welcome Home Dinner" for Congressman William S. Broomfield will be held at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 27 at Northwood Inn.

Chairman of the dinner Wm. H. Breech, of Bloomfield township, stated that Congressman Broomfield is to be honored because of the extremely competent job he has been performing through his program of informing over 700,000 constituents of Oakland County as to what's going on in Washington.

His informational letters are directed to individuals on subjects vitally concerning them and have been enthusiastically received, Mr. Breech added.

Featured speaker will be Congressman Gerald R. Ford, East Grand Rapids. Marlin R. Hemphill, will be master of ceremonies.

CONGRESSMAN Broomfield only 37 years old, is a former member of the Michigan house of representatives and state senator. He is now serving his second term as a U. S. Congressman.

He resides at 1115 S. Lafayette, Royal Oak with his wife and three children.

Many of Congressman Broomfield's constituents wanting to show their appreciation for a job well done, have planned this "Welcome Home Dinner".

THE PRICE per ticket is $12.50 and ladies are cordially invited.

For information regarding the dinner or ticket sales, write to: Northwood Inn Dinner Committee, c/o William H. Breech, 2100 E. Maple Road, Birmingham.
