

Just as the body requires daily nourishment, so does the mind need to be fed sustenance. Indeed, unless one's thought be given proper food, unless this thought be afforded the opportunity to thrill to the development of man's inner spirit—that intangible, yet ever-hungry, appetite for divine growth—unless this takes place spirit will starve and die, though the body live.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday, September 24, 1959

SECTION
C

Bloomfield Hills' Oldest Home

ADMIRING SOME ARTICLES which were featured at the Harvest luncheon and fashion show are (from left) Mrs. J. C. Zeder of Orchard Ridge road, Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Richard Leasia of Covington Place, Bloomfield township and Mrs. E. W. Huston of Broadway boulevard, Bloomfield township.

Perfect Setting For Fashion Show

The grounds of Mrs. Adolph J. Weisamer's historic field stone house—built in 1828 and the oldest in Bloomfield Hills, made a complete setting for the Harvest luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the Women's association for the Detroit Symphony orchestra.

Proceeds for the day were dedicated to the Detroit Symphony orchestra. General chairman was Mrs. E. Bryce Alpern and assisting was Mrs. Richard F. Brennan.

BUFFET luncheon tables were decorated with arrangements of fresh fruits and flowers. Cooks of the area set up long counters to sell delicious pickles, cakes and cookies and jams and jellies.

Among the hostesses were Mesdames Lloyd Kemp, Roger Kyes, Alan Lofthorow, David Meester, Benjamin Mills, H. Benjamin Rubi, W. Whiting Raymond, George Romney, Thomas Stewart, Carl Snyder, Arthur Tilton, L. I. Woolson, Syber Thinsstad, Elmore Wadler, James Zeder, Carl Zuber, Sidney Chapin.

LIST CONTINUES with Mesdames: Draper Allen, W. T. Bannall, Warren Booth, Earl Bartholomew, Walter Bomb, Alexander Budd, Leroy Buehler, William Daniel, Fred Erb, Marjorie Frost, Graham J. Graham, Lloyd Gringold, Spencer Hopkins and Henry Johnson.

Thousands Attend Benefit For Save the Children

Fabulous, tremendous, successful, these are the words you hear about the International Travelers Market, a benefit for Save the Children Federation, that took place Saturday at the Greek theater on Lone Pine road.

It was a happy day for chairman Mrs. Robert VanderKloot and her co-chairman, Mrs. Edward S. Wellock and their some 300 co-workers.

BETWEEN 6 AND 7 A.M., cars loaded with merchandise could be seen driving to the Pavilion. Greetings were exchanged and in the case of John E. Gordon who had not even had his morning coffee... the Henry S. Baedts who were busy in the English booth immediately said, perhaps it is closer to our house for it.

It was team work—husband and wife and it was a busy time to be ready by 10 a.m. But exactly on time, co-chairman VanderKloot and Wellock were ready to open the gates and greet Dr. Richard P. Saunders, president of Save the Children Federation who with Mrs. Saunders had come from New York for the occasion.

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED E. GRANN has as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen of Chicago, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kin Finch, chairman of the board of Save the Children Federation were present also Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Druker of Berea college, Kentucky.

Flags, flowers and colorful balloons gave festive atmosphere wherever you looked, the happy smiles on people were catching and with a satiation look and for each booth were lines... 3-4 deep before they could finally reach the desk.

THE MARKET has been a conversation topic in the community for several months and surely the attendance must have been a real satisfaction to all the workers. The crowd was estimated at 10,000. Cars were parked all over and an efficient police corps was in attendance.

Young boys dressed in colorful uniforms opened doors as cars drove up and a handsome program was presented to everyone. At noon a luncheon was served at the James A. Beresford garden, which had the same festive atmosphere.

THOUGHTFUL CHAIRMAN, Mrs. VanderKloot has provided sandwiches and coffee for the workers, but quickly they disappeared as the many customers became acquainted with the place and were hungry, too.

A busy cashiers department with "bankers" in attendance under the finance committee: Messrs. Elmer Fromm had been set up and here you also stood in line waiting to pick up and pay for your goods.

CUSTOMER ESCORT chairman, Mrs. Robert Craig and checking committee chairman, Mrs. Orville Beardsley had a hectic time to keep up with all the details but they had efficient committee members in the aisle of the School of Dramatic Arts in Leipzig, she has also taught dramatics in a German boarding school.

Dr. Saunders was asked how he felt about the market immediately he replied with enthusiasm: "It's unbelievable... one must see it with your own eyes... the charm of the setting, attractiveness of the articles; the volume in which they were being sold; the

Dr. Richard P. Saunders, president of Save the Children Federation, is being greeted by (from left) Mrs. Robert C. VanderKloot of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Edward S. Wellock of Kirkway drive, Bloomfield Hills, at the opening of the International Market Saturday morning.

Sharon Livingston Feted at Shower

Marilyn Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Long of Colonial court, Birmingham, was hostess at a personal shower for Sharon Livingston, daughter of the Louis Livingston of Pontiac. Mrs. Livingston is senior university tomorrow for her

Celebrating Club's 40th Year

Dr. and Mrs. George P. Raynale of Tooting lane, Birmingham, enjoying an evening at Oakland Hills Country club. The club is celebrating its 40th anniversary of laying of the cornerstone. A full schedule was on the agenda last weekend which included a floor show, birthday party, champagne brunch and dinner dance. The floor show was arranged and written by Walker Graham and Masters of Ceremonies were John Ahearn and David White with background music by Warren Pease and John Ahearn. Dr. and Mrs. Raynale are charter members of the club.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Three Months to Go

Its more than three months until Christmas, but Christmas Carols already filled the air in the home of Mrs. Herbert A. Carr of West Maple road, Bloomfield township, last week when she and her friends gathered together at breakfast to discuss plans for the 22nd annual Christmas show of the Birmingham branch of the WNFCA, on December 2 and 3. Mrs. Carr, general chairman, has been organizing committees and making preliminary arrangements for this community project. The club members will all have a chance to prepare an exhibit or work on one of the committees.

Never Dull Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Spurrell of Ingleswood drive Birmingham, gave a "Dude Ranch party" at their "Never Dull Spot". Guests arrived in Western attire and upon entering, a huge sign "Check Your Guns" stared them in the face. Men certainly aren't worth as much as they used to be. Mr. Spurrell was the bandit of the evening, "Wanted Dead or Alive." Reward $5. Fourteen guests enjoyed barbecued steaks, and participated in a horse race, cigaret rolling contest, picture drawing of a horse and chatting at the "last chance" bar. Out of town guest from Denver, Colo., was William Young.

Lawyers' Wives Take Tour

Lawyers' wives of Michigan toured Cranbrook yesterday under the direction of Mr. Leroy Vandever of Sussex road, Bloomfield Hills. Later in the afternoon, Mrs. John J. Raymond of Trowbridge, Bloomfield Hills, entertained at a tea in her home. The tea was hostessed by the Italian-American Lawyers' Wives of Michigan. Mrs. Louis Miriani was one of the pourers. Among some of the Bloomfield area women attending were Mrs. David Pence, Mrs. Henry Woolfenden, Mrs. David DeWitt and Mrs. Donald Tyler.

Another Year Shot

Birmingham Community House newcomers club Golf League will close a successful season of play at a luncheon Oct. 2 at 2 p.m. at Devon Gables. Golf chairman, Mrs. H. Grant Temple will welcome members during the social hour from 12 to 1 p.m. and will award the trophies and prizes.

Winners of the Medal tournament played during July were Mrs. James Cortez, Mrs. Kenneth Burmaster and Mrs. Charles Becker. The Match-play tournament was won by Mrs. G. Scott Foster, Mrs. Harold Wilkin, Mrs. Harry N. Runkle and Mrs. Argyle Campbell. Final play of the season will be tomorrow at North Hills Country club.

Wellesley Club's Evening Meeting

Yesterday was set for the first meeting for the Birmingham Wellesley club. Mrs. Garvin Bowden, member of the Fernalde school on Jordan lane, assisting were Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Frederick Pater and Mrs. Harvey White. "What is happening in Education in Our Area" was the topic of the first meeting for Oct. 20 at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Northbrook PTA

Northbrook PTA scheduled their first fall meeting for Oct. 20 at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Matthesius Teachers, Attractive Trio

ANGELA and her parents, the Joachim adult night school, which begins Tuesday. Matthesius, join the faculty at Kingswood's of the war, remembers much of it. She doesn't describe details, but says that she doesn't like to see a group of German teachers who visited the U. S. for a three-month study tour of nearly one hundred schools. His book, "One Hundred Summer Days in the New World," published in Germany, describes what he observed. Impressed with our country, he and his family decided to make their home here. NO NEED TO ASK them if they enjoy it here. Their enthusiasm shows that they like their adopted home, and their spontaneous gaiety is certain to make Kingswood's language classes fun... as well as educational... for students of all ages.

Braes' Annual Picnic

THE BRAES—Sunday, members of the Braes of Bloomfield association (sub 1) met for their annual picnic at the lakeside property of the Stanley E. Rappis of Eastmoor, together with their neighbors, the Russell Herricks and the Jerry Roberts. Participating in the hole-in-one contest are (from left) Dick Fiersal of Derramoor, Stanley Rappis of Eastmoor, and Chuck Cary of Derramoor. The picnic was chairmanned by Mrs. Ralph Rappis and assisting were Mrs. Glen Paulson, Mrs. H. G. Sims, Mrs. James Maudner, Mrs. Meile Schermerhorn, Mrs. Richard Piersol and Mrs. Richard McLoughlin.

Holy Name Church Scene of Ceremony

Barbara Jean Elizabeth Wrobel and Wieland Borwell LaNica III, selected Holy Name church as the setting for their September 12 wedding. The Rev. William Davidson officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

The bride is the daughter of the Theodore Wrobel of Hemmendale drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of the W. B. LaNicas, Jr., of Farmington.

THE BRIDE appeared in a full length gown of chantilly lace designed with long tapering sleeves and a scalloped neckline trimmed with sequins and pearls. A jeweled crown secured her finger in veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet consisted of white orchids and stephanotis. Mrs. Raymond Konaleski, matron of honor, wore a shrimp silk organza gown designed with short sleeves and ballerna length. She carried bronze chrysanthemums.

BRIDESMAIDS were Nancy Mae LaNica, Carol Felix and Mary Ann Garmar. They wore identical dresses as the matron of honor except in emerald.

Flower girls were Debra and Cynthia Wrobel. They wore white organza dresses and carried baskets of chrysanthemums. Theodore Wrobel, Jr., stood as best man. Seating the guests were John Wrobel and Robert Mito.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding, Mrs. Wrobel selected a blue peau de soie gown with a white orchid. Mother of the groom chose a brown lace over taffeta dress and a white orchid corsage. The new Mrs. LaNica changed into a beige suit with brown accessories to start her wedding trip to Northern Michigan.

Mrs. Wieland Lanica III