Evening Concerts Scheduled

An unusually varied program of five evening concerts will be presented by the Pontiac Symphony orchestra during the 1959-60 season.

Francesco Di Blasi, who has guided the orchestra for six seasons, will again conduct and will be aided by the associate conductor, Celia Merrill Turner. All concerts will be in the Pontiac Northern high school auditorium.

OPENING NIGHT, Oct. 13, the complete second act of the opera

"Tosca" will be presented with outstanding soloists from the Michigan Opera company.

On Dec. 1, one of America's finest pianists, Emma AndresKountz, will perform Rachmaninoff's concerto No. 2 with the orchestra.

On Jan. 26, an interesting all-orchestral program is planned with the well known Celia Merrill Turner sharing the conducting honors with Francesco Di Blasi.

PHILIPP STEINHAUS will play Handel's concerto for organ, Opus No. 4 on March 8. Guest soloist, John Dalley, a violinist who has appeared with many leading orchestras in this country will appear April 19.

Personal Call Program Slated

The Wellesley college alumnae in the Birmingham area will join other Wellesley alumnae throughout continental United States and Hawaii in a program of utmost importance to the future of their college. Wellesley's "Personal Call Program" will be in progress in this region through Oct. 1.

During that fortnight, some 25 local callers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Knight of Wing Lake road, will get in touch with all the other Wellesley alumnae in the vicinity.

DURING THE VISITS, pleasant reminiscences of college days will be combined with news of recent campus developments, with attention focused primarily on Wellesley's most urgent requirement today: the need to raise funds for improvement of faculty salaries.

In planning the Birmingham phase of the Personal Call program, Mrs. Knight, district chairman, is receiving close cooperation from Mrs. William Norvell of Lone Pine road, district representative of the development fund and Mrs. James Bernard of Kenansaw avenue, president of the Birmingham Wellesley club.

ALUMNAE who will come to call include Mrs. Eleanor Gaffill, Mrs. Raymond Husband, Jeanne Lloyd, Mrs. Gordon White, Mrs. William Barney, Mrs. Wayne Andrews, Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Garvin Bawden, Jr., Mrs. Jacque Fainno, Mrs. James Blodgett, Mrs. John Szydan, Mrs. Vernon Myers, and Mrs. George Wiley, all from Birmingham.

Senior Scouts Off to Camp

A miniature of the July Girl Scout Round-Up in Colorado is being staged at South Oakland Girl Scout's Indianwood Day Camp site Friday thru Sunday.

Open to troops qualifying as Senior scouts this fall, the camp is meant to give the girls an opportunity to share the experience of the 30 girls from South Oakland who attended the round-up.

In addition to being seniors, participating troops must have troop camping equipment, a camp trailer and previous primitive camping experience.

In keeping with the program at Colorado, there will be items to exchange and exhibit. The public may attend the three day encampment each day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Panel at PTA Meet

Birmingham PTA council will meet Monday at Southside high school at 8 p.m. "Problems Concerning Youth" will be discussed by Judge William McCarthy, Dr. Dwight Ireland, Olivia Thomas and the Rev. L. C. Gillette. The meeting is open to all PTA members.
