SOCIETY
Pine Lake Branch
Gather for Meet

Pine Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association met at the home of Mrs. Carl Gioia of South Pine drive for the first meeting of the season. Mrs. A. J. Lindeman was co-hostess.

Merrill Ray of the Michigan department of Conservation gave an informative talk on Pine Trees and civic improvement after which a question and answer period was held.

Mrs. Harold Schneider, horticultural chairman, gave a report on the forthcoming Fall Flower Show "What so proudly we hail" being given by the North Suburban branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association at the Birmingham Community House Wednesday from 2:30 until 9 p.m. Guests are welcomed.

Mrs. Russell Kock informed the branch that she entertained the Ronda Garden club, a group of teenage girls from Pontiac State hospital at her home with a picnic and swimming party during the late summer.

Mrs. Kock reminded the members of the Workshop being hosted by the Pine Lake branch on Oct. 13.
