

Without freedom, one has no liberty; each is the twin of the other. The American concept of liberty is freedom from slavery, bondage, imprisonment, or the absolute control of others. These freedoms have enabled Americans, through intelligent application of head and hands to natural resources, plus the team-work spawned by a free, competitive economy, to achieve many high goals.

Club Goes Oriental

A "Far East" party will be the theme of Plum Hollow Golf club ladies bridge luncheon and fashion show for members and guests on Sept. 10 at noon. Fashions in American Styles will be shown by the Bloomfield Fashion Shop. Table prizes and decorations are being flown in from Hong Kong and Tokyo, especially for this party. Door prize winners will receive their lucky numbers in Chinese Fortune cookies.

Committee members will be attractively dressed in authentic Oriental costume, to add color to the party. Committee members from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area are Mrs. "Bob" Glenn H. Otto, chairman, Mrs. Peter J. Russ, Jr., co-chairman, Mrs. Thomas O. Stewart, Mrs. Leonard Gardner and Mrs. Carl Just.

In Town for a Few Days

The George W. Stookeys are being seen around Birmingham visiting. They have leased their house on West Lincoln for the past two years. When asked by her friends what she does in Pennsylvania with her spare time she replied, "I buy wedding gifts for the Birmingham high class of '55. Practically all of their son's friends of that year are married. All but the "Birds of Paradise," a singing group Noel formed at that time. Her husband suggested that perhaps the "Birds" foretell their own future since it was an apt group name for those who still enjoy "bachelorhood."

Fur Fashions at CC

Birmingham Country club will be the scene Sept. 16 for a Ladies Luncheon and Fashion Show. Districts will show fall fur fashions. Chairman of the show is Mrs. Frank N. Mosher and assisting are Mrs. Charles Gramader and Mrs. Alex Kachinko.

Where Did Santa Go?

The William B. Grabendickes of Yorkshire road, Birmingham, gave a farewell dinner Saturday evening for the Stanley Banfields, who are moving to New Hampshire. The Grabendickes decorated their crabtree with Christmas lights for the event and about 9:30 p.m., the guests were surprised to see Santa Claus running through the yard. Santa turned out to be a neighborhood boy who decided to put the finishing touches on the Christmas scene.

Party at BAA

Bloomfield Art Association will open the season with a party on Sept. 13. The event will coincide with the Instructors' Exhibition, a showing of art work done by nine of the BAA class instructors. The artists will be present at the party. Pitching in to make the party a success are co-chairmen, Kay Sanders and Mary Pink with committee members, Bety Oros and Dodi Coquillard.

Christine Lewis Weds Ronald Nightingale

Given in marriage by her father, Christine Elizabeth Lewis became the bride of Ronald Nightingale Saturday evening at Kirk in the Hills. The Rev. Dr. Harold C. DeWindt performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 700 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chamberlain Lewis of Crestwood drive, Franklin. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Nightingale of Walnut Lake.

CHRISTINE wore a gown of imported lace designed with a scooped neckline, three quarter length sleeves and blush pink peau de ashe sash and back bow. A Juliet cap of matching lace secured her three quarter length veil of silk illusion.

She carried a semi-cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, lily of the valley and ivy.

The bride's sister, Catherine Ann Lewis, served as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Carroll P. Crawford and Barbara R. Crawford of Miami, Fla., formerly of Birmingham, Ruthann Huffman of Franklin, Connie Shroyer of Birmingham, Arlene Kasper of Riverside, Ill., Merike Timms of Pontiac and Charlotte Ellison of Franklin was junior bridesmaid.

THEY WORE dresses fashioned of pink silk and cotton featuring scooped necklines, puff sleeves, full skirts and three tucked cummerbund effect bands with back bows. They carried cascades of deep roses.

Robert Gasser of Livonia stood as best man. Ushers were John Sweet of Walnut Lake, Gerhard Osterback of Royal Oak, Gordon Match, John Evans of Birmingham, Lloyd Lewis of Franklin, Arthur Lee of Kalamazoo, Thomas Rickelman of Fort Huron and Douglas Gattie of Pittsford, Mich.

FLOWER GIRLS, Cynthia and Caroline Finn, wore white organdy over pink and carried baskets of rose petals.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Lewis selected a peacock blue lace over taffeta dress with matching and white accessories.

Mother of the groom chose a teal blue lace and chiffon over taffeta sheath with matching accessories. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.

GUESTS WERE greeted in the garden of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Lewis donned a sheath of aqua silk with white polka dots to start her wedding trip to Copper Harbor. Upon return they will live in Livonia.

International Market Draws Near

Mrs. G. T. Christiansen representing the Norway booth chatting with Mrs. C. H. John, staging chairman of the International Travelers Market, at the Greek Theatre last week.

Even though the weather was almost unbearable last week, willing volunteers worked continuously for the big event, International Travelers Market, which is scheduled for Sept. 19 at the Greek Theatre.

Staging chairman Mrs. Colin H. John called a meeting on Aug. 27 at the Greek theatre to outline the booths and staging. Most exciting news that Norway will join the Swedish booth and display jewelry, skiing sweaters, etc. Mrs. G. T. Christiansen is chairman and assisting is Mrs. Carl Moe.

SOME 7,000 invitations will be in the mail shortly and the following are getting groups together to address all: Mrs. J. R. Ackerman, Mrs. A. L. Hopkins, Mrs. B. R. Finlay, Mrs. L. C. Spedeman, Mrs. J. K. Otis, Mrs. G. A. Jacoby and Mrs. C. W. Frederick.

Another busy committee is the program committee who is compiling all data for same. Mrs. I. H. MacKenzie has just returned from her vacation and together with Mesdames Frederick B. Fisk, and John Schmidt there is a meeting this week at Mrs. MacKenzie's home on Vaughan road.

Committee members of the Danish booth met at the home of Mrs. Alfred E. Grann of Oak Hill drive, Birmingham, last week. Admiring some of the articles which will be featured are (from left) Mrs. J. R. Lex of Detroit and Mrs. Edward B. Hall of Oakland drive, Birmingham.

Fashion Cycle Turns to Fall

September 23 will be marked on many calendars in the area for the Tea and Fashion Review of St. Joseph Mercy hospital. Guests will meet at the Elks Temple in Pontiac at 1:30 p.m. Proceeds will be used for the clinic of St. Joseph hospital.

The new look in fall clothes will be the new sleeves and Grecian waist line, the tunic toping, the uncovered look, wrist length longer jacket and the overhouse.

IN THE accessories department, the bags will keep the big look which makes for more room and will include the jeweled velvet, draped alligator, the needle point and the satin evening bag done in gold and silver.

The belts will carry bows and roses, color combined with leather, suedes and grograin will be stiffer, gorgeous calf and satins together, deep brown with gold and silver accent.

THE GLOVES will range from the short tailored glove to the long draped evening glove. Some will carry rhinestones and jewels, some will show the pull on suit glove or wrist glove decorated in roses and beads and some of the kid gloves will be lined in different colors such as the brown lined with gold and silver.

The jewelry takes on a chain look. Two, three and five strands just don't seem enough. They will range from the pearl in all colors to the deep reds, blues and yellow greens. The chain bracelet still remains one of the best.

ALSO YOU will see the kimono
