and matching Dior bows. They carried an arrangement of roses.

James Sullivan stood as best man. Ushers were Eugene Wenden, Steve Mulliken and Richard Judd.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Butler chose a turquoise chiffon dress with white accessories. Mrs. Frink selected a blue lace and chiffon dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had white orchids.

A GARDEN reception followed at the home of the groom's parents.

The new Mrs. Frink wore a dark print cotton dress with black accessories to start her travel to Northern Michigan.

The young couple will make their home in Royal Oak.

Jamaica Honeymoon For the J. J. Murphys

Two hundred guests attended the wedding of Norma Lee Kass and Jimmy Joe Murphy Saturday afternoon at St. James Episcopal church. The Rev. Kenneth H. Gass performed the 4:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burton Kass of Chestnut street, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Charles Luther Murphy of Morrow, Ga.

FOR HER WEDDING, the bride wore an embroidered Swiss organza ballerina length gown designed with short sleeves and portrait neckline. A lace crown secured her veil of silk illusion. A bouquet of thurium lilies and ivy completed her outfit.

Mrs. John Regis Tissot, Jr., matron of honor, wore an embroidered organza over moss green taffeta dress. Her headress consisted of ivy and she carried a bouquet of thurium lilies and ivy.

Fine Gifts for gracious giving

Basically, a gift is a gift.

Yet Oh, what a difference there is when the chosen gift is above-average in design, and intrinsic value, and fittingness. For such a gift is immediately set apart in the recipient's mind as an example of thoughtfulness instead of mere duty; hostesses will thrill with your kindly remembrance.

For all your gift-requirements such fine gifts, for gracious giving, await you here at this Shop.

Schutte-Yarnall Married Saturday

St. James Episcopal church was the scene Saturday for the marriage of Nancy Lee Yarnall and David Morris Schutte. The Rev. Kenneth Gass performed the 8:30 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Yarnall of Sulfield road, Birmingham, wore a gown fashioned of white silk organza over taffeta designed with an oval neckline and fitted bodice accented by hard-corded alencon lace and tiny seed pearls.

THE DOME-SHAPED skirt was highlighted by a row of alencon lace and seed pearls which extended into a chapel train.

The bride's veil is an heirloom brought from France and worn by her grandmother and mother. Trimmed with Beignon lace it fell to the length of the chapel train of the gown. She carried a semi-colonial bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses centered with white orchids.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Gary Osterbeck of Royal Oak. Bridesmaids were Sharon Long of Hamden, Conn., Mrs. Roger Blackport of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Stephen Yarnall of Rochester, N. Y., Jeanne Pedder of Bloomfield Hills, Mariola Schutte of Birmingham and Sondra Baetz of Rocky River, Ohio.

MRS. OSTERBECK donned a blush pink silk chiffon gown with a draped Grecian bodice and an empire satin cummerbund falling to soft fullness. Her headress was a matching satin bow with a short veil.

The bridesmaids wore dresses identical to the matron of honor except they were in peach. All attendants carried semi-colonial style bouquets of rubrum lilies and ivy.

Serving as best man was Brooks Marshall, Jr., of Birmingham.

Ushers were Stephen Yarnall of Rochester, N. Y., John Rick Schmitt of Birmingham, Stephen Kerne of Royal Oak, Daniel Schutte and Walter Herdrich, Jr., of Birmingham.
