Austin-Collins Wed In Vandalia, Ohio

Saint John's Lutheran church in Vandalia, Ohio, was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Barbara Collins and Douglas Victor Austin. The Rev. Robert Barkley officiated at the 3:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Collins of Vandalia, Ohio. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus P. Austin of Hagerstown, Ind., formerly of Birmingham.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of taffeta featuring a scooped neckline adorned with chandilly lace appliques studded with pearls. The bouffant skirt, accented with sprinklings of appliques flowed gracefully to the floor. Her two tiered fingertip veil of French illusion was caught to a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. The bridal bouquet was of white rose buds and stephanotis with an orchid insert and a satin bow.

JACQUELINE Collins, sister of the bride, served as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Judith Austin, sister of the bridegroom, and Carole Kiser.

Attendants wore ballerina length gowns of blue silk organza featuring a draped neckline ending with a deep V-back. A taffeta front cummerbund with a back bow and sash fell over the gathered skirt. They wore matching headbands in bow effect trimmed with seed pearls and enhanced with a circular veil. The attendants carried bouquets of pink asters and sweetheart roses.

BEST MAN was John Fall and ushers were Gordon Greek and George Collins, Jr. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Collins chose a mauve crepe chiffon sheath with matching accessories and pale green orchid.

MRS. DOUGLAS V. AUSTIN

Mother of the groom selected a romance blue chiffon dress with pink accessories. She carried pink sweetheart roses.
