September brides are caught up in a whirlwind of parties. Martha Ellen Stevenson, daughter of the John K. Stevensons of North Gleggarry road, who has been honored at many social gatherings throughout the summer, has a crowded schedule from now until her 8 p.m. wedding on Sept. 10 to John Howard Wert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Wert of Faculty Row, Bloomfield Hills.

Her sister, Linda, who will be her maid of honor, is giving the spinster dinner tomorrow evening in the Stevensons' home.

Saturday evening the bride-elect's two aunts and their husbands—Mr. and Mrs. Robert VanderKloot and Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. McKenney—are giving a dinner party followed by dancing at the VanderKloots' Lone Pine road home.

A Sunday night supper for the prospective bride and groom is being planned by the Hobart D. Andrews of N. Gleggarry road on Aug. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Semon Knudsen have spoken for Aug. 7 to entertain for their niece and her future husband at a dinner-dance in their Birmingham road home.

On Tuesday, Sept. 8 a luncheon and kitchen shower is being given by Ellen Vandusen and Mrs. Bruce Robinson (the former Jane Romney, who has come from Salt Lake City and is at her parents' home for the summer at the Benington drive home of the C. Theron Vandusens. That same evening the bachelor dinner will be given at the Wert's home.

The following evening Mr. and Mrs. Wert will be hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the Bloomfield Hills Country club. At noon on Thursday, Sept. 10, Mrs. Cyrus R. Osborn will entertain the wedding party, members of the families, and out-of-town guests at a luncheon in her home on Martell drive.

John Wood, whose mother, Mrs.

John G. Wood of Lone Pine road, had originally planned to announce her daughter's engagement to Louis Molella of Millbrook, N. Y., this coming December, has stepped up her wedding to Sept. 9 because her future husband's business will take him to Paris, France.

The couple will be married in New York and two days later will sail aboard the S. S. United States to Europe where they will travel through Switzerland, Germany, and Austria before moving into an apartment in Paris.

George T. Trumbull, Jr., will escort to the altar, and her sister Mrs. Trumbull will be her only attendant.

Many parties have been given for Judy in the last few weeks. Yesterday Mrs. John P. Wood and daughter, Virginia, of Rutledge road gave a luncheon for her at Oakland Hills Country club.

Today Mrs. William C. Newberg and her daughter, Judy, are entertaining for her at a luncheon in their Bloomfield home. Tomorrow at the Bloomfield Hills Country club Judy will be honored at a luncheon given by Mrs. A. C. Girard and her daughter, Shelagh. Sunday, Judy and her mother and the Trumbulls will be off to New York.

Janet Francis Galludet's wedding to Ralph Alonzo Sturges III, of New York, on Sept. 7 has been postponed because of the bride's illness.

On August 20 Mrs. E. O. Bodkin, of Grosse Pointe, entertained at the Country club, and on August 24 Mrs. Jeremiah Gillette and her sister, Mrs. William E. Murry, entertained at dinner in the Gillette's Birmingham home.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. James C. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. James C. Foster gave a buffet supper and bar shower for 30 guests at the Holmeses' new residence on Willow Lane.

On Saturday, Sept. 5, Dr. and Mrs. John R. MacDonald are giving a luncheon in their Shadow lane home for the wedding party, out-of-town guests, and family. Saturday evening the Edward A. Skans and the James J. Phelan, Jr., of Grosse Pointe, will honor their niece at a buffet supper at the Little club.

A Sunday brunch at the Bloomfield Open Hunt will be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Wood, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cummins, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Chad M. Ritchie.

The bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cockrell Galludet will give the wedding reception at their Shadow lane home.

Many families are back in town after vacationing. The Jonathan M. Balls of Shirley drive, are home after days in New York. They spent a week in New Canaan, Conn., with Mrs. Ball's brothers-in-law and sister, Dr. S. Perry; they saw two Broadway plays, "La Plume de Ma Tante" and "The Treasury Company".

The bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cockrell Galludet will give the wedding reception at their Shadow lane home.

Other Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spencer and their three children, Beth, Betty, and Sally, of 2412 1/2 Ave. paid their friends here a surprise visit. Here for just a few days, they stayed at the lake home of Lloyd R. Walkers, of Drayton Plains.

Spencer's parents, the Atwood B. Oatmans, also formerly of Birmingham, are planning a trip to Europe this fall.

Other Birmingham residents, the William G. Crawfords and daughters, Patty and Bobbie, of Miami Beach, Fla., visited here last week. The girls were bridesmaids at the Saturday wedding in Kirk-in-the-Hills of their cousin, Christine Lewis, of Franklin, to Ronald Nightingale.

LEGAL NOTICE
Clarence W. Blesman, Atty. 207 Wabash Bldg., Birmingham, Ala.

STATE OF MICHIGAN—The Probate Court for the County of Oakland in the Matter of the Estate of WINNIE A. KITCHEN, Deceased.
At a Court of said court, held at the Probate Court in the City of Pontiac, in said County, on the 24th day of August, A. D. 1950.
Present: Honorable Arthur E. Moore, Judge of Probate.

Order appointing time for hearing claims.

Notice is hereby given and it is hereby ordered that the time and place for hearing on claims against the above named estate be the 10th day of September 1950, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of that day in the Court House at the City of Pontiac, Michigan; any claimant who desires to present the above estate are further notified to appear at said hearing with their claims and with the fiduciary of this estate, together with supporting detail reasonably to inform the fiduciary of the nature and amount of the claims. It is further ordered that notice be given to all interested parties by the records in this cause by delivery of this notice to each of them, by mail or by other means, together with return receipt demanded addressed to their respective last known addresses as shown by the files and records in this case. It is further ordered that notice thereof be given by publication for three successive weeks previous to the hearing of the claims in the Pontiac Enterprise, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County, Michigan.

ARTHUR E. MOORE,
Judge of Probate.

Mr. and Mrs. Steele L. Sellers and their three children are back in town after a vacation in New York. They spent a week in New Canaan, Conn., with Mrs. Ball's brothers-in-law and sister, Dr. S. Perry; they saw two Broadway plays, "La Plume de Ma Tante" and "The Treasury Company".

The bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cockrell Galludet will give the wedding reception at their Shadow lane home.

The George W. Malones of Wellesley drive, and the Paul F. Lorenzen of N. Gleggarry drive, and their children have returned from a stay at Big Wolf Lodge in the Adirondack mountains. On their vacation they visited in Boston, Booth Bay, and Quebec.

Also back from a vacation in the Adirondacks, where they have had their own lodge for many years are the Maurice Garabants, of Cranbrook road, Bloomfield Hills. Daughters Marilyn and Sally Dale accompanied them, while their son, Robin, was only 40 miles away at Camp Dudley.

Last week they entertained 49 members of the Guild of Carltoners of North America, who were visiting at Cranbrook to enjoy the 60-bell carillon of Christ Church. The Garabants, who acted as hosts to the Guild, entertained them at a buffet supper, Saturday evening, and they were all entertained Monday evening at a dinner at Cranbrook School.

The Jervis B. McMechans and their three young boys returned Sunday to their Blitar road home from a three-week vacation at Isleboro, an island off the coast of Maine. They stayed at the home of Mrs. McMechans' parents, the H. R. Sperry, formerly of Bloomfield Hills, who operate a summer camp, "Whippoorwill", at a Keeseville, N. Y. The McMechans stopped at the camp on their way home.

The James W. Rowlands and their three children are back from a short vacation in Jamestown, Ohio, where they visited Mrs. Rowlands' parents. They had intended to see the horse races in Kentucky, but because of the heat, they remained in Jamestown, went swimming at the Pincrest Club, and took a trip through the Ohio Caverns. The Rowlands spent the early part of August getting settled in their Surfside road home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bain Griffith and son, David, returned to their Surfside road home Sunday from a vacation at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island.

At a dinner party Saturday evening at their home on Redding road, Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Bell made available to their guests—the Ross Maccks and the Stanley Spiegels of Birmingham and the Norton Ives of Grosse Pointe—some pictures they had taken on their recent trip to Europe.

They sailed in May on the S. S. United States and spent a week in England, where they encountered and had dinner with the Elmer L. Sylvester, of Bloomfield, who were on their way home.

The Bells flew to Paris, where they happened to meet Mr. and
