

'round the towns news The Birmingham Eclectic

BEVERLY HILLS BINGHAM FARMS FRANKLIN WOODCREEK FARMS LATHRUP BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP SOUTHFIELD CITY

W. Bloomfield Says Yes on Library Tax

WEST BLOOMFIELD—Voters approved an extra one-half tax levy to pay for the construction and equipping of a library in West Bloomfield township Tuesday.

Motel OK, Twp. Tells Opposition

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Erection of a 64-unit, luxury motel complete with swimming pool—located at the northeast corner of Long Lake and Telegraph roads, has received approval of Bloomfield township's zoning board of appeals.

Beverly Adopts Zone Law

BEVERLY HILLS—A new zoning ordinance was adopted by the Village of Beverly Hills at a public hearing Monday night.

Shopping Center Action Pends On Court Case

SOUTHFIELD—All action on Southfield's shuffling shopping centers between 12 and 13 mile roads has been held up by the outcome of the Lieberwitz-Lezbell suit scheduled for court today.

Garden Club Meet

FRANKLIN—Members of the Franklin Garden club will participate in a program of flower arrangements when the group meets Sept. 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil R. Bates, 3129 Mount View drive, at 8 p.m.

Together again after a summer of camp and travel, the Bud Guests enjoy watching movies of their many good times.

Family Spirit Reigns At Guest House or Home

By NITA HARD Bingham Farms Correspondent

ELSEWHERE IN THE ECCENTRIC School Opens Next Week For Area Students Do-It-Yourself Household Hits The Waves

NEW DIRECTOR Heads Methodist Fashion Cycle Turns To Fall

IN THE LIVING ROOM you meet handsome 20-year-old son Edgar, III, a senior and Phi Delta Theta member.

Bud speaks into the WJR microphone that has for years carried his good-natured humor to hundreds of thousands of listeners.

Resignation Leaves 3 Beverly Posts Vacant

BEVERLY HILLS—With the resignation this week of Councilman Robert B. Reed, three vacancies in Beverly Hills' official ranks will be up for discussion next week when the village council holds its regular meeting.

Rouge 1 District Faces Bill

Whether the county goes ahead with its Rouge drain No. 1 project or not, property owners in the large drainage district will have to pay for drawing up the plans, County Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry said Tuesday.

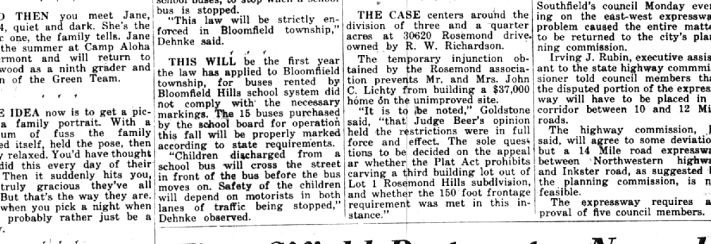

Family Spirit Reigns At Guest House or Home

By NITA HARD Bingham Farms Correspondent

ELSEWHERE IN THE ECCENTRIC School Opens Next Week For Area Students Do-It-Yourself Household Hits The Waves

NEW DIRECTOR Heads Methodist Fashion Cycle Turns To Fall

IN THE LIVING ROOM you meet handsome 20-year-old son Edgar, III, a senior and Phi Delta Theta member.

Bud speaks into the WJR microphone that has for years carried his good-natured humor to hundreds of thousands of listeners.

THE CASES center around the division of three and a quarter acres at 30620 Rosemond drive owned by R. W. Richardson. The temporary injunction obtained by the Rosemond association prevents Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lichty from building a $37,000 home on the unimproved site.

First S'field Postmaster Named

WASHINGTON—A 26-year career employee of the Postal Service has been named Southfield's first postmaster, announced Congressman Wm. F. Broomfield (R.-Oakland County) today.