Alley, Access Drive Assessments Okayed

Assessment rolls for two paving projects were confirmed Monday by the Birmingham city commission.

Advertisements will be placed soon for the estimated $4,700 paving of an access drive on the west side of US-10, from Lincoln south to Ruffin.

Commissioners also approved a $4,400 alley from Worth east to Adams, north of Webster. With payments spread in five installments, it may be paid before enough funds are paid so the city can construct the alley.

Paving, Rezoning Hearings May 2

Two hearings have been set for May 2 before the Birmingham city commission.

One concerns necessary for any other section of acreage on the east side of Woodward, between Oak and Park streets.

The second involves rezoning of multiple dwelling property on the west side of Woodward, some distance north of Bloomfield court.

The Wallace J. Newton Co., owners, asked the commission to advance the hearing to take advantage of the coming construction season. Usually, the rezoning hearings are set for June 13.

The city plan board already has recommended denial of the Newton request, which asks the project zoning be changed to allow a multi-story apartment development.

Inside the 'Y'

This Cake Sale Was Hot One for 'Y' Fund

Chi Rho Tri-Hi-Y members held a bake sale last Saturday in front of Kay Baum's clothing store and earned $37.50 which they contributed entirely to the World Service fund. Chi Omega of 16211 Locherly, Beverly Hills, chaired the sale.

"A word of thanks is in order to the management of Kay Baum for their cooperation in this sale, to the girls for their effort in this endeavor, and to everyone who purchased from the Chi Rho Tri-Hi-Y club during this sale, because this money will be used to aid and support other YMCA's around the world," a 'Y' spokesman said.

WORKSHOPS for families interested in learning more about tent and trailer camping will be held at the Birmingham YMCA, beginning May 6 and continuing each Friday through May 13.

There is still room for salesmen, and it is not too late since the sale lasts until April 23. As of last Saturday evening one boy had earned over a third of this camping fee. This is more impressive when you consider that the sale only began the night before.
