netted $30,252.46 for the Bir-mingham community house, and a telephone campaign is becoming a necessity, accord-ing to a campaign spokesman. The goal is $51,500.

The fund raising committee anield 18,000 frequest, from only 2,567. Answers to the call have come from 2,374 individuals, 135 businesses, and 50 organizations. Eight plelges have been made.

THE TELEPHONE committee, which will start working this week, will include members of such groups as the Postcomers, Senior nen's club, Birmingham musicale, nd the Junior league, according to committee chairman Mrs. C. L. Souchard.
