Newlywed Swansons To Live in Olivet

Olivet Congregational church was the scene Saturday of the marriage of Sheila Joan Curry to Frederick Karlton Swanson, with the Rev. Charles B. Hastie performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Curry of Olivet, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Swanson of Miami, Fla., formerly of Birmingham.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of handpainted and patterned, imported rose point lace, fashioned with a fitted basque with motifs of the lace attached in the center by a single pearl edging the wide portrait collar.

A crown of pearls secured her ballerina length veil of imported French illusion and she carried a colonial cascading bouquet of white roses centered with a cymbidium orchids with a shower of satin ribbon.

JUDITH ALTENHEIN was maid of honor, wearing a gown of powder blue chiffon over matching tulle, featuring a modified scoop neckline, bell sleeves and ballerina length bouffant skirt. She wore a headpiece of matching chiffon and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Everett C. Swanson Jr. of Birmingham attended his brother as best man and the ushers were Jack Bartlett and Phillip Webb.

Following the ceremony a reception for the couple was held in the American Legion Hall where a buffet dinner was served.

maestro architect who has truly caught the tempo of "Art for Leisure" living.

HERE IN THE "Angove home" (1414 Cedar Bend drive, Bloomingfield Hills) is an outstanding contemporary design for family living. It is both creative and functional.

The architect, Olav Hammerstrom, has designed a concentrated working core around which all family activity evolves.

Against natural woods and pure white walls, handwoven fabrics and rugs create a brilliant interior. One feature at the Angove home will be demonstrations of waxing techniques by Marianne Strenghol. Olav Hammerstrom will be present.

BUILT IN 1939 on an original land grant in Michigan Territory, the Robert Wardrop home on 4800 Beach road, Birmingham, has the charm of Early American design. Its setting is one of country atmosphere with many large trees surrounding it.

Although additions were made in 1925, much of the original mouldings, woodwork and glass panes remain. Family heirlooms and Louis Seck furniture lend themselves to the quiet elegance of the home.

Both music and the visual arts have a continued interest in the Wardrop home and it is quite natural that "Art for the Family"
