at MI 4-2880

Edward E. Schirmer, of Crawley-Sussex, England, is returning a recent visit paid him by his parents, the Edward A. Schirmers of Lone Pine court, and will be here for Easter.

As European director of McGraw-Hill publishing Co., he is presently in New York on business. His parents flew to England late in February to visit him and his wife and three children, the youngest of whom, Thomas, was just born last June, and met his grandparents for the first time.

AFTER THEIR visit, the E. A. Schirmers drove through France, through the Loire Chateau country, then toured Switzerland. They went to Branzoli and Antwerp and Amsterdam, then drove to Rotterdam for the International Horticultural show, called the "Florade", which opened March 25. They returned to Bloomfield Hills after another brief visit with their son's family.

The Schirmers' other two sons will also be home for Easter. Michael from the University of Michigan and Robert, from Denison University, and they will all spend Easter Day at the Harlan road home of the E. J. Andersons.

COMING FROM Saginaw for this Easter Day family get-together will be the Anderson's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stongene Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Williams of Grandfield road, their other son-in-law and daughter will be present; and Mrs. Anderson's brother-in-law and sister, the Thomas LeMessuriers, will complete the picture.

Easter Visitors

The Hamilton H. Patersons of Westwood drive have some members of their family visiting them. Mrs. Paterson's daughter and son-in-law and their family—the Paul Sellers, of Haverford, Pa.

Also expecting visitors for Easter weekend are the Aaron H. Websters of Fairfax road—their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhodes of Chappaqua, N. Y. Lindsay and David Rhodes are accompanying their parents and will remain here with the Websters for two months while their parents tour Europe. The Websters, themselves, have recently returned from a vacation in Naples, Fla.

Hong Kong Bound

Peter Holt Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. West of Harbor Terrace, is home on leave from the U. S. Fleet Sonar school, San Diego, Calif., where he completed the electronics course as a Torpedoman. His next assignment with the Navy will take him to Hong Kong.

Training Ends

Having completed his basic training, Steve Saunders is also at home now with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders of Orchard Ridge road. Mrs. Saunders recently returned from a trip to California.

Also recently returned from California are Mr. and Mrs. Myers E. Cather of North Glenhurst drive.

Dinner Party

The Henry S. Booths and daughter Martha returned last week from Phoenix.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Greene of Country club drive entertained at a small dinner party. They had returned just a few days before from a two-week vacation in Mexico, accompanied by their daughter Jennifer and her friend Chris Meyers, both students at Kingswood school Cranbrook.

Return from Trip

The John W. Richardsons of Bennington drive had a two-week vacation in Puerto Rico. Richardsons stayed at the Dorado Beach hotel. With them were daughter Keith, who attends Brookside school, and John Jr., a Cranbrook student.

Visits Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Mosby of Shirley drive were visited last week by their son Jim, who is living in Bay City now, writing for the Bay City Times. The previous week the Mosbys had returned from a trip to Hawaii.

Although they spent most of their time in Honolulu on the island of Oahu, Hana on Maui, and the Kona coast and Hilo in the island of Hawaii, they did drive through most of the islands, stopping at times overnight.

The Joseph E. Wellmans were with the Mosbys in Honolulu. Previously the Wellmans had seen the Frederick C. Pews and the Robert F. Grimleys in Hawaii.

Home from Cruise

Recently returned from a Mediterranean cruise is Mrs. Sheldon B. Noble of Henrietta street. Their boat was the Olympia, and some of the places it took them to were the Black Sea, Rumania, Odessa, Yalta, Egypt and Israel. They were the first large group of tourists to come into Rumania and thus were more of a curiosity than the Rumanians were to them.

On Cargo Liner

The Charles W. Taylors of West Valley road returned Friday evening from a three - month trip abroad. Having always wanted to take a trip on a cargo liner, they did so this time. They were among a total of 12 passengers on their boat, President Adams.

They were escorted by New
