

Perhaps (indeed, not "perhaps," but "certainly") the greatest vacuum within the role of being a civilized human being lies in the waning qualities of personal ethics, personal morality. (As for "morality" this word relates to much more than the common use of sex.) Failure to measure up to the best precepts and examples causes each generation to lose qualities which, alone, can guarantee freedom.

ANN CHARLOTTE CRONANDER

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. J. Erwin Cronander of Northlawn drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann Charlotte, to J. Douglas Wiggazzer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Theodore Wiggazzer of N. Glenhurst street, Birmingham.

The bride-elect is a junior at Michigan State university and is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Her fiancé attends Western Michigan university.

Mary Inez Stack Weds Everett Vernon Bolen

Mary Inez Stack and Everett Vernon Bolen were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Dr. Arnold F. Runkel in the First Methodist church.

The bride who is a teacher in Birmingham, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Rodney Stack Sr. of Charleston, S.C. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Everett Bolen of Oak Park.

GIVEN in marriage by her father, Mary wore a princess style gown of white tulle de sole with portrait neckline, long sleeves and bell skirt caught in a bottle fashion back sweeping gracefully into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion cascaded from a crown of seed pearls with tear drop pearls dangling in the open network. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, staphenotis and lily of the valley.

WHEN LEAVING for her honeymoon, the new Mrs. Bolen wore a pastel blue tweed suit with silver gray mink collar, pastel blue accessories and blending strap. After a wedding trip through the southern states, Miami Beach and Nassau, the couple will reside in Royal Oak.
