

Carol Darling—MA 6-6348

Bloomfield Township—Joyce and Charles McGee (left), a weaving-designing husband-wife team, are typical of the talented, young couples who have contributed to the success of the Bloomfield art association program in Birmingham which is now in its third year. Here, the Robert Thoms of Foxcroft ask Joyce to demonstrate her spools and spindles in Shain Park during the Birmingham Arts Festival week, June 11-19. Thom is chairman of the special events and park activities for the celebrations.

Gilbert Lake Gardeners Slate April 18 Meeting

GILBERT LAKE—Departing from their usual evening meetings, members of Gilbert Lake Estates garden club will hold an afternoon meeting April 18 at the home of Mrs. Dale Miller of Snow Shoe Circle.

They plan to put some of their learning to work bringing containers in which to arrange flowers which Mrs. Miller will purchase. The arrangements will then be taken to patients at local hospitals.

Mrs. Lynn Townsend opened her home on Orchard Bend on April 6 to board members of the AAUW for their welcoming tea for new members in the Birmingham area.

Returning from California last week was Mrs. Eric Houghberg of Birmingham road. While her husband was on a business trip to South America, Mrs. Houghberg visited her family and relatives in California. Leaving early in February she spent the major part of the trip in San Francisco and Long Beach.

Annuals, Evergreens Garden Meeting Topic

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—CHELMERS LAKE—Mrs. Harold Tanner of Ardmore opened her home to members of the Cranbrook WNFGA for the monthly meeting on April 4. Guest speaker was Mrs. Richard Geurthy whose topic was "Effective Use of Annuals and Evergreens."

Because the president, Mrs. Charles Taylor, was expected to arrive home from a world tour in time to attend the meeting, Mrs. Tanner planned the afternoon tea with an international theme. The tea table was laid with an oriental arrangement of flowers and tiny parasols.

Mrs. Tanner's mother, an honorary member of the Cranbrook branch, poured. Co-hostesses were Mrs. S. Truman Hart, Mrs. William S. Mosher, Mrs. William Bruce Gregory and Mrs. E. F. Scherer.

FOXGROFT—"Tops in Pinks" was the intriguing title of a talk presented by Boris Harvey, wife of Place to members of the Foxcroft branch, WNFGA, at their meeting on April 4. Place presented members with a new slant on interior decoration with emphasis on accessories and flowers used on color schemes.

Tea hostesses were Mrs. Richard Delbord, Mrs. A. A. Arbogast, Mrs. F. C. Gadd and Mrs. J. A. Hall. Floral centerpiece was arranged by Mrs. M. F. Mallender.

WESTWOOD MANOR—Mrs. Robert Temple of Westwood Manor last luncheon hostess to members of the Westwood Manor WNFGA at their April 4 meeting. Guest speaker was Mrs. Ben Stevenson

Franklin Residents Welcome Spring

FRANKLIN—With the worst of the mud over and the best of the year to come, it's only a matter of replacing a few broken shock absorbers before the village takes on the mood of spring holiday time.

Some have had their vacations, returning bronzed and rested.

The Fred Ziegler of Garden Way received a royal welcome from their family as they returned Monday after two weeks in Hollywood, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. John Burger of Telegraph road have also rejoined their children and grandchildren for their annual meeting of the Franklin College of Physicians. With them was Mrs. Burger's aunt, Mrs. Martha Lyon of Columbus, Ohio.

Breakfasting one morning, 2,500 miles away from home, the Burgers were startled to see a familiar face from Franklin. Over the toast and coffee they exchanged travelogue with Adam Schube of Willowgrove, in California on business.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Franklin Park drive will have an attentive audience as she recounts her solo vacation on a guest ranch in Arizona. Back home she will have several weeks, Mrs. Mitchell made a number of side trips and spent a day in Mexico which greatly increased her luggage.

With impressive precision, scouts kept the tables set and served as a record crowd consumed countless browned sausages, fish cakes with gallons of milk, coffee, sherbet, cottage cheese and apple sauce. The service will be used to enhance the troop's camp at Lapeer and buy additional equipment.

A lesser crowd, though equally enthusiastic attended the square dance held that night by the Franklin community association.
