West Blo Marion Patrick—MA 6-3022 4-H Club Members Win Awards in B'field

WEST BLOOMFIELD — Bloomfield 4-H club members were justly proud of the awards they received at achievement day held April 2 at Pontiac Northern high school.

Twelve-year-old Diana Davis, although in her first year of photography, was presented with a brownie camera and flash holder by the Birmingham Kiwanis club as an award for her excellent work.

Bill Saylor, who plans a career in foods, placed blue ribbon, honor roll for his creative cooking and for wood handicraft.

Yvette Bette also placed blue ribbon, honor roll for creative cooking.

Other blue ribbon honor roll winners were Linda and Menden Wescott, leathercraft; Linda Myers, knitting and Mary Ann Loden, clothing.

Ricki Ann Hoxie and Mary Ann Loden won dress review pins.

Ralph Hoxie won an initial honor for the entire club when he was chosen best achievement winner in the county.

The 86 members in the club exhibited 77 projects and as a club came in third in handicraft with their display of metal jewelry, leather craft and wood craft.

June 30 has been designated as official Father's Day this year but fathers of the youngsters attending the co-op nursery at 22250 Middlebelt will have an extra day of celebration on April 16.

Every day but one during the school year, mothers are on hand to give Mrs. Mary Pasco, the co-op nurse, but come Saturday, the dads will take over the duties of the teacher's assistants as they try and cope with the little pre-schoolers.

MAPLE ROAD—Lighted candles and a stack of pancakes may seem like an odd combination, but to Janine Fockler who was celebrating her birthday, the means justified and end.

The 13 candles lighted at 8:22 a.m. signified the exact time of her birth, while the stack of pancakes were served to eight of her breakfast guests.

The eight girls who had fun at a slumber party Friday night and the birthday breakfast Saturday were Nancy Keller, Joyce Smith, Susan Holmes and Nora Koskinen, of West Bloomfield; Linda Black, Elizabeth Blackwood and Julie Johnson of Beverly Hills and Cathy George of Rochester.

Janine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Fockler of West Maple road.

WALNUT LAKE—Mrs. A. E. Morrow of Osoda arrived Tuesday to spend a week with her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Courville Morrow.

Last Sunday Judy Morrow invited Canille Kirkluk and Vinio Doig to join her family for lunch in celebration of her tenth birthday.

BRAES — Mr. and Mrs. Neale Schermerhorns of Old Orchard drive announce the birth of their third child, a son, Randall Albert on April 8. Little Randy has a brother Kent, who is 7 and a five-year-old sister, Karen.

Visiting the Schermerhorns are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Schmierer of Saginaw.

WALNUT LAKE—Members of the Walnut Lake garden club held its annual election of officers at the April 4 meeting held at the home of Mrs. Reginald Fellow on Ballantrae road.

Mrs. A. A. Wilbur was re-elected to the office of president. New officers elected were Mrs. Robert A. Carter, vice-president; Mrs. G. P. Robert, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. H. Chudik, recording secretary and Mrs. W. E. Loll, treasurer.

Plans for money making ventures for the coming year were discussed with a tour of unusual kitchens heading the list.

BRAES — Dinner guests of the Donald Irvins last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ole Brondum of Stockholm, Sweden.

WALNUT LAKE—Five couples, who formed a square dance group for a monthly evening of fun, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
