North Adams Families Return from Vacations

NORTH ADAMS—Many families out North Adams way are returning from vacations just in time for Easter. The Clifford Nolte's of Meadowlone motored to Miami a month ago where they joined a tour that made a memorable island hopping trip.

Their first stops were the Virgin Islands, St. Thomas and St. John. Then on to San Juan, Puerto Rico; Haiti, Port O'Prince; Kingston and Montego Bay in Jamaica. A banana plantation at Montego Bay was one of their last tours before leaving for home.

The Frank McCartneys of Burnley drive and Miss Marcia Kelley, Mrs. McCartney's sister, will be returning home in their own plane a few days before Easter.

Their last two weeks were spent at the Half Moon Hotel in Montego Bay, Jamaica. They were joined there by their parents, the Oliver K. Kelleys of Bloomfield Hills, and the Grant Street McCartneys of St. Paul, Minn. On the McCartneys' trip homeward they made stops at Nassau and Eleuthera Island.

The Robert Livesays of Pine Hill drive chose Bermuda and Barbados as their vacation playground for the past two weeks. In Bermuda, they stayed at the Newstead and Piguet and the Sherwood Manor at Fairy Land, during their tour of the island.

Then on to Barbados where they made their home at the Acera Beach. The Livesays experienced the confusion of learning to drive on the left side of the road as they traveled through the countryside. A rum factory was among the points of interest. The Livesays are now planning a three-day trip to French Lick, Springs, Ind., where they will attend the national association committee of Railroad Trial council, the end of April.

The Louis Deaks, Jr., of Pine Hill drive were accompanied by the Paul Osterbergs of Cambridge, Ohio, on an eight-week trip to Arizona. They made the Camelback Inn and the Ramada Inn their headquarters during their stay with Ty Tyson, Ted Williams, Rosalind Russell and the J. C. Penneys, who were also guests at the resorts.

Among their many side trips were a flight to Palm Springs, visits to Mexico, the Apache Trail, Hoover Dam and Phoenix. They were fascinated with the western motif throughout Arizona.

The Eugene Moorheads of Rouge Circle drive are home again after a ten-day trip through the west. Three days were spent at the Desert Inn Hotel in Las Vegas before flying on to Los Angeles. During their stay on the west coast they visited Hollywood and Santa Monica.

The Baylor Suttons of Pine Hill drive are enthusiastic about their first trip to Florida where they spent three weeks.

Three days were spent in Leesburg where they visited the H. F. Fleckingers of Birmingham. Then on to Miami Beach, where they toured the area and visited Florida residents, the H. B. Wells. His stop was made in Jacksonville on their homeward trip.

Another couple back home after more than two weeks in Florida are the Kenneth Martens of Lenox road. They made their trip southward via a jet and headquartered at the Attache Hotel in Hollywood, Fla. It was a busy vacation of golfing, swimming, visiting the Sea Aquarium at Key Biscayne and taking ocean trips with the vacationing Mel Kettleworths of Cass Lake, in their yacht.

Charing Cross Estates will hold its "spring dance" and midnight buffet April 23 at Jeri's Golden Gravel Room.

The 50 subdivision couples will be dancing to the music of the Four Colombos. Committee chairman planning the event are the Jack Hunkles of Watline road and assistants, the Robert MacGregors of Watline and the Reid McGugin of Haddington.

Mrs. E. A. Linder of Westchester road, publicity chairman of "How does your garden grow?" hosted a luncheon in her home last week. Her guests were W. H. St. Clair of Birmingham, garden show chairman and member of the WNFPA; Mrs. J. P. Ziegelbauer of Birmingham, co-chairman and member of the Franklin branch; Mrs. Oscar Oldberg, Mrs. Joseph Dworki, Mrs. Alan Yates, committee members of publicity and Usage Garden Club members.

Thirteen North Suburbia branches of the WNFPA are combining forces to present "How does your garden grow?" from 1 to 9 p.m. May 25 at the Birmingham community house.

Easter weekend guests arriving at the North Adams road home of Mrs. Fred E. Bigelow will be Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Grant and daughter, Marcia, of Chatham, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Eberhardt of Jackson, Mich.

Mrs. Bigelow is having a buffet supper party at the City Club on Saturday for her guests and friends. On Easter Sunday Mrs. Bigelow and her guests will dine at the D.A.C.

Have You Met . . .

The Henry Thorens, who have moved into their new home on Warwick drive from Detroit? They have five children, Maureen, 20, attends Wayne State, Janet, 18, a student at Michigan State, Tom, 16, attends Bloomfield Hills high and Karen, 8, Gary 7, pupils at Hickory Grove. Thorens is in sales with Cleaners Hanger Co. Golf and swimming are interests the family enjoy.

Newcomers to Meadowlone, the Leslie J. Peters of Birmingham? They have a daughter, Carolyn, 9, attending Harlan school. Peters is general service manager for International with Burroughs. Camping and gardening are among the family's hobbies.
