

High School Musicians Win Again in Lansing

The district festival under their belt, Birmingham students from Groves and Seaborn high schools went to Lansing and notched high ratings in the state band and orchestra festival.

Soloists who received first division ratings were: Marge Stettinbacher (clarinet), Phil Satterthwaite (clarinet) and Charles Fierz (clarinet).

A second division quartet from Groves high school, including John Keiser, Bill Schanlee, Bill Phillipson and Cheryl Weiss took a first division. A second division rating went to a brass sextet from Seaborn. It included Phil Satterthwaite, John Rice, Dale Porter, Tom Spierling, Charles Fierz and Melodie Brown. A cornet trio which included Phil

Obituary Notices

Mrs. A. H. Denyes, Owner of Interior Decorating Studio

After a short illness, Mrs. A. H. Denyes of 170 Baldwin, Birmingham, died Sunday at Grace hospital in Detroit. She was born Oct. 16, 1895 in Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Denyes owned and operated the Allene Hanna Interior Decorating Studio at 500 Park street, Birmingham, for the past 10 years.

She was a member of St. James Episcopal church in Birmingham. Women's City Club of Detroit and Michigan chapter of A.I.D.

Surviving are her husband, Harry, and another, Mrs. B. B. Barbee of Louisville; two sisters, Mrs. Joseph A. Kelsey of Birmingham and Mrs. Chester A. Barbee; two stepsons, Birmingham Commissioner Harry M. Denyes, Jr., and Richard T. both of Birmingham; and a brother, Wheeler Hughes of Louisville.

Services were Tuesday from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with entombment in White Chapel Memorial cemetery.

Services Today For R. A. Cuddie

A civil engineer with Cuddie Engineers Inc., Robert A. Cuddie, 37, of 431 Aspen, Birmingham, died Monday at William Beaumont after a long illness. He was born in Windsor, Ontario.

Mr. Cuddie attended Tri State college in Angola, Ind. and was a member of the First Presbyterian church, Birmingham Rotary club, American Concrete Institute, Michigan Society of Professional Engineers and Consulting Engineers Council.

He leaves his wife, Joyce; his parents, the J. H. Cuddies of Hamilton, Ontario; three sons, Robert R., Richard, and David P.; three daughters, Sydney, Robin K., and Tania J.; and a brother, John A.

Services will be 2 p.m. today from the First Presbyterian church with burial in Acacia Park cemetery. Arrangements were by the Manley Bailey funeral home.

Mrs. F. J. Kendall

After a short illness, Mrs. Frederick J. Kendall of St. Luke's Episcopal church home in Detroit, died April 12. Mrs. Kendall was former resident of Birmingham. She was a member of St. John's Episcopal church and was active in the Red Cross during World War I.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Herbert Wagner of Ann Arbor and Mrs. William E. Kegel of Birmingham; four grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and a sister.

Services were Saturday from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with burial in Woodlawn cemetery.

Douglas H. Fremody

A former resident of Birmingham, Douglas H. Fremody of Utica died Saturday at Detroit hospital after a short illness. He was employed by the Bell Telephone Co. for 30 years.

Survivors include his wife, Cora; two sons, Allen D. and Dan D.; his father, Casper of Birmingham; three brothers, Howard, Edgar; a sister, Mrs. Isabelle Hansen and one grandchild.

Services were Wednesday from the Diener funeral home in Utica. Burial was in Franklin cemetery.

WHAT TO DO THIS SUMMER

If you're a teenager (or parents of same) wondering about summer, our "TEEN-AGE SUMMER GUIDE" ($1.50) will be of help. Travel, camps (foreign, special interest, such as art, music, sciences, work, wilderness trips; community service; summer jobs; study... many suggestions and guidance as to how to go about it. The tours, camps, and study groups are forming now. Don't miss out. ACT NOW.

SO INTRIGUING are the booklets on PATIOS and POOLS, included in our Garden Collection, we almost got lost in plans ourselves! Filled with illustrations and instructions, they are loaded with ideas, simple or elaborate depending on your taste, space, and budget. $1.50 each, and well worth it.

SO YOU'RE GOING TO BE A BRIDE. Make it easier on yourself and everyone concerned by consulting the new, revised edition of "Your Wedding. How to Plan and Enjoy It" by Marjorie Binford Woods, long considered an authority on this subject. From the announcement, through the reception, hundreds of questions answered for you. Not just a book on etiquette (two have those, too, Emily Post's "Emily Post's Etiquette" and "Vogue's to name a few) but one of suggestions, and advice so that your wedding can be non-hectic and enjoyable, perfect in every detail. $3.50 well spent.

WANT THAT PERFECT ITEM for a going away gift? See our extra-nice leather, pocket-size Travel Diary. We guarantee this will be a gift received with enthusiasm and appreciation.

BE INSPIRED by Dr. Dooley's new book, "The Night They Burned the Mountain," as amused by George Sanders "Masters of Deceit" (Professional Cud) as informed by "Command Decisions"—the 20 crucial decisions that decided the outcome of World War II. All available for your reading pleasure.

Had a Bowl with Pottery

Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Rogers, 1411 Maryland, Birmingham, and the Dean Coffins, members of the Bloomfield Art Association, like the idea of "throwing pots" and "raising bowls" but they have decided to leave it to the clay potters and metal pounders who will join glass blowers, sculptors, and portrait painters, dancers, singers and designers—artists and craftsmen who will demonstrate their skills in Shain park during the Birmingham Arts Festival week-long celebration June 11 through June 19.

Founding of the Birmingham First Church of Christ, Scientist. Both were practitioners.

Mrs. Margaret Hengel

Mrs. Margaret Hengel of Royal Oak died Sunday at William Beaumont hospital after a long illness. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Harry Duxson and Mrs. Thomas Robertson; four sons, Frederick, William of Birmingham, John and Robert; also eight grandchildren.

Services will be today at 11 a.m. from the Kinney funeral home with burial in White Chapel Memorial cemetery.

Clements White

Clements White of Pontiac died Saturday at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital after a short illness. Funeral services were Monday from Church of the Advent with burial in Roseland Park cemetery. Arrangements were by Sawyer funeral home.

James Marsh

A resident of Birmingham for two years, James Marsh of 4500 Pickering road, died Friday at his home after a long illness. He is survived by his wife, Frances G.; a daughter, Mrs. John J. Slavin of Birmingham and five grandchildren.

Services were Tuesday from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with burial in Yonkers, N. Y.

Thomas T. Roberts

Services were Friday from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., for Thomas T. Roberts, who died at Pontiac General hospital after a short illness. Thomas was a Cranbrook graduate and attended the University of Michigan.

Mrs. B. B. Phillips

After a long illness, Mrs. Bertha B. Phillips of 1615 Birmingham boulevard, Birmingham, died April 12 at Bloomfield hospital. She was born in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Phillips was a member of Disciple church of Cleveland.

Surviving are two sisters, Ruby Burridge and Mrs. Samuel Knowlton, both of Birmingham. Funeral services were in Cleveland. Arrangements were by the Manley Bailey funeral home.

Robert Vint

Robert Vint of 28265 Sunset boulevard, Lathrup Village, died April 14 at Mt. Carmel hospital after a long illness. He retired in 1955 after 29 years at Fisher Body as supervisor of Quality Standard division.

He was a member of Caruthian Lodge 241 F. & A. M., Scottish Rite Body Valley of Detroit, Mosaic Temple, Michigan Minutemen society and Michigan Lapidary society.

He leaves his wife, Hazel; two daughters, Mrs. John A. Gaydos and Mrs. Frederick Gosline; three grandchildren; one great-grandchild, a brother and four sisters.

Services were Monday from the Manley Bailey funeral home with burial in Acacia Park cemetery.

Mrs. Tessa Hallock

Mrs. Tessa Adelia Hallock of Royal Oak died Saturday at Brae Burn Nursing Home after a long illness. Services were Monday from the Sullivan funeral home with burial in Roseland Park cemetery.

She leaves her husband, Archibald R.; four sons, Roscoe C., of Birmingham, Thomas A. of Royal Oak, Harry L. of Ann Arbor and James W. of Albion; a daughter, Mrs. Sidney Miller of Birmingham; 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, also two sisters.

Mrs. Mary Zylman

Memorial services for Mrs. Mary Zylman, 187 Townsend, widow of the late Charles N. Zylman, will be held in the Harper Mulligan Funeral Home, 16450 Hamilton, Highland Park, Saturday at 4:30 p.m. Mrs. Zylman passed away while in Boston, April 10. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Esther Stovall of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Zylman has been residents of Birmingham for many years, and were active in the

Local Yacht Catches Fire

Police are investigating the cause of a fire that caused extensive damage to the $150,000 100-foot yacht of Francis A. McGuire, 915 Westwood, Birmingham, last Saturday night.

The yacht Gypsy was docked at the Detroit Boat Basin when the fire broke out. Damage was confined to the galley, lounge and dining room of the 2 1/2-deck craft.

McGuire told police that he had been on board a short while before in order to charge the batteries.

LAMP SPECIAL

SELECTED

LAMPS

AT

GREATLY

REDUCED

PRICES

SATURDAY

ONLY

La Belles

137 West Maple

Books, Stationery and Gifts

OPEN TODAY

Antique

Show

April 21-24

Ford

Auditorium

20 E. Jefferson

DeJesse

Tickets available through

Women's Society

Grosse Pointe

Methodist Church

211 Morass Road

Grasse Point Farms

TU 1-5188

TU 2-9328

Where You Shop

Is Part

Of Who You Are

The significance of a gift oft-times reflects the integrity of the store in which it was purchased. Back of that firm's integrity are the long years of association with the fine houses offering the best of domestic and foreign wares. From their offerings, an experienced buyer selects the best values offered for a select clientele.

Therefore, when a gift is selected and sent from LaBelles, it bears more than just the semblance of another gift. It means thoughtfulness and care. It carries with it that note of character of the giver, for having chosen it here.

La Belles

137 West Maple

Books, Stationery and Gifts

Own A Fine OIL PORTRAIT

Of A Loved One!

16" x 20" Handsomely Framed

COME IN FOR FULL DETAILS

WILSON DRUG CO.

DEPENDABLE PRESCRIPTION SERVICE

WOODWARD AVENUE MIDWEST 4-5600

Where You Can Get a Bakers Dozen

SEE OUR AD IN SECTION C

BLACK IVY

by FREEMAN

Dark new shade with a faint touch of Olive. Trim soles and the new higher profile make this the season's most handsome slip-on.

Freeman Castlecourt—

Black Ivy Calf, also Black Calf $17.95

Freeman Shoes

$11.95 to $28.95

Also fine selection of Banister Shoes

Higgins and Frank

OF

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

268 W. MAPLE RD.

Social Strawberries good enough to eat! on Pottery, place mats and other accessories.

Baldwin

Visit our new branch in BIRMINGHAM 115 SOUTH WOODWARD

A complete display of Baldwin Grand and Console models. The Lowrey Organ featured... you are cordially invited. Sunday, April 22... you are cordially invited.

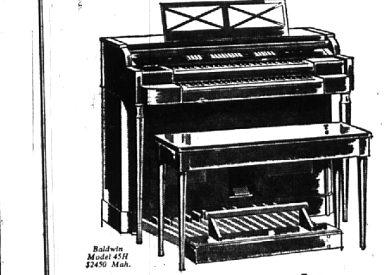

Lowrey Organs

BALDWIN TONE... is pleasure

BALDWIN Tone... makes beautiful music even more beautiful and the world famous Baldwin piano action, improves the skill of beginner and artist alike... before buying, try Baldwin.

SALE Console Pianos and Organs used only for display at Detroit Home Furnishings Show. Both stores will show these exceptional values.

The Most Complete Home Organ Ever Built

The Baldwin Model 45H definitely sets a standard in home organs... before buying any instrument you should hear and examine the many advanced Baldwin features built into this organ... for it has everything.

Smiley Bros.

Birmingham Store: 115 S. Woodward MT 7-1177. Open Daily 9-5, Fri. 9-9, Closed Sunday.

5110 Woodward PINEHURST PARK BIRMINGHAM, ALA. 35208