First Baptist Church Scene of Ceremony

First Baptist church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Carol Brisendine to Donald W. Craig. The candlelight ceremony was performed by Dr. Homer Armstrong.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clint H. Brisendine of Parry street, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence D. Craig of East Palestine, Ohio.

FOR HER WEDDING, Carol wore a white tulle gown featuring a round neckline, short sleeves and a chapel train. A chintz lace headpiece secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A bouquet of white stephanotis and white miniature rosebuds completed the bridal picture.

Honor attendant, Janet White, wore an aqua silk organza gown designed with a sash and neckline and full skirt. She carried white stephanotis, yellow miniature rosebuds and ivy.

BRIDESMAIDS were Joan Lukacs, Mrs. Don Hogan and Susan Koger. They wore yellow silk organza gowns. Flower girl was Pamela Mocer. She wore an aqua dress and carried a basket of yellow daisies.

Robert Craig stood as best man and ushers were William Craig, Errol Brisendine and Thomas Mikola.

Mother of the bride chose a navy blue silk organza dress with pink accessories. Mrs. Craig selected a medium blue sheath with white accessories. Both mothers had cymidium orchids.

THE NEW Mrs. Craig wore a black tulle skirt and beige brocade jacket for her wedding trip to Chicago. They will make their home in Royal Oak.

WARREN HERSEY

Players To Present 'Harvey'

Everybody laughs at "Harvey", the three-act comedy by Mary Chase, now in rehearsal and will be presented by the Village Players of Birmingham at the Village Playhouse, 122 Chestnut street, on May 6, 7, 12, 13 and 14, to close the club's theatrical productions for its 37th consecutive year.

All performances except on May 6, which has been wholly subscribed by Alpha Xi Delta sorority alumnae, are open to the public. Curtain time is 9 p.m.

Warren Hersey will play the role of Elwood P. Dowd, who acts as Harvey's human contact.

Harvey is a Poika white rabbit, six feet one and one-half inches tall who alleviates tensions and traumas so successfully as to inspire near-belief and acceptance by a few discerning people.

Want ads cannot be accepted after 5 p.m. each Tuesday.
