7 Honors for 7 Seniors

Seven seniors have been nominated for the Quill and Scroll award—one of the highest honors attainable for a high school student in the field of journalism.

Today, close to 400 seniors on the Washington trip are touring Manhattan, the United Nations building, the planetarium, and the Radio City music hall this evening.

Friday, some of them will take a boat trip around Manhattan or Rockfeller center. The tired tourists will arrive home Saturday afternoon.

On May 12, Scribblers club will take a field trip down to Wayne State theater to see a production of Shakespeare's comedy "Twelfth Night". Although no definite plans have been set as yet, the club would like to have a potluck supper afterwards.

Since most of Seaholm's top players in baseball, track, tennis, and golf are returning, the spring sports season should be very successful.

In baseball the team expects to become one of the chief contenders for the EML title. Two of the returnees, Phil Isbell and Jay Madonia are the core of the team and should be partially responsible for all of the Maple victories this season.

Two players who will also be responsible for this season's wins are George Forrest and Rod Rudy. Isbell will pitch again this year.

hours on end hard labor, but a vacationist finds fishing for hours great relaxation. Think about it: what is the difference?

Well the difference was best expressed by humorist writer, Mark Twain, who said, "Work consists of whatever a body is obliged to do, and play consists of whatever a body is not obliged to do."

Have you ever noticed the best worker seems to enjoy putting himself into every phase of his work? If you haven't, start noticing the so-called brain in school.

Most often a brain enjoys working hard in school because he is eager for knowledge and to achieve high scholastic averages and is constantly seeking betterment.

So maybe you haven't done too well thus far this year, there is still time to do good work on your term paper, final exams and weekly tests. Take a new view of work, enjoy it. Think of the wonderful knowledge which is yours if you work in school and absorb it. Fess up, actually school and schoolwork is FUN!

The Carat Weights Balance...But!

1 Carat Diamond $1,000.00

A $450 DIAMOND CAN NEVER BE THE EQUAL OF A $1,000 DIAMOND WHEN PURCHASED FROM A RELIABLE DEALER

1 Carat Diamond $450.00

Claims to that effect can be made. But, given equal carat weights and different prices, the lower priced diamond automatically has less of the desired qualities that characterize the other diamond. Obviously, this does not apply only to the prices used as examples above.

Know your dealer. In him must be placed your trust for value received. The reliable dealer is one who has pride in his profession, whose integrity is a matter of public knowledge. Aside from his integrity, he will never give less than fullest value because his living depends on your future purchases. If he appraises your "bargain" diamond as value less than paid for, it is not sour grapes, but the judgment of one who knows diamonds.

Know The 4 C's Of Diamond Value

Know that every diamond has four characteristics that determine its value—Carat weight, Color, Clarity and Cut. A $100 diamond can have as perfect a combination of these as a $1,000 diamond. The difference will be size. The individual investing in a diamond should ask himself whether it's size alone or the best combination of the four C's he wants in his diamond. A reliable dealer will give the latter.
