Citizenship Theme Of May Fellowship

Because 1960 is a national election year, the United Church Women have fittingly chosen as their May Fellowship theme: "Citizenship — Free and Responsible." Durward Varner, chancellor at Michigan State University Oakland, will speak on this subject at 10 a.m. May 6 at the First Methodist church in Birmingham.

Mrs. Lynn Russell, chairman of Christian social relations, states that one of the objectives of this May Fellowship meet is to interest the United Church Women to take more action as responsible citizens.

THE DAY will begin at 9 a.m. breakfast. A committee, with Mrs. H. H. Fisher of the First Methodist Church, as chairman, has been busy making posters, distributing tickets and arranging for a nursery, to insure good attendance.

Working with Mrs. Fisher are Mrs. C. Walter Frederick from Christ Church Cranbrook, Mrs. Albert Eckfeld from the Congregational Church, Mrs. Garth Hawley of Embury Methodist, Mrs. Stewart Smith of First Baptist, Mrs.

Rummage Sale April 29 in Lathrup

The Community Congregational church, Southfield and 11½ Mile, Lathrup, will have a rummage sale April 29 at the church. The sale hours are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. It will be sponsored by the women's association of the church.

Ray J. Detmers from First Presbyterian.
Mrs. Robert Weaver from Franklin Community church, Mrs. Wilbur E. Saylor from the Kirk-in-the-Hills, Mrs. Charles Amann from Northminster Presbyterian, Mrs. Ivan Hill of St. Andrew Lutheran and Mrs. Merle Slack from St. James Episcopal.

MAY FELLOWSHIP is designed for the cooperating churches and for the community. Tickets for the breakfast can be secured from the United Church Women delegates.

St. Andrew Slates May 1 Family Night, Mission Study Panel

St. Andrew Evangelical Lutheran church will have a family night and mission study May 1 at the Chapel, 6255 Telegraph road. The program will follow a supper served by the women of the church with a potluck dessert at 5 p.m. "Lutherans in Liberia" will be the subject of Mrs. Brooke Stanford, 5330 Wing Lake road, followed by a meal of African stew.

Went About Doing Good

Youngsters of the church school of First Methodist shared their time and talents with others during Lent as a special Easter time project. Symbolizing their good deeds are Laurie Lee Ferguson with the basket she used to deliver groceries and her brother Kerry with the rake he used to straighten yards. Ruth Ann Strawser tended flowers with her sprinkling can and Russell Ives holds his sister, whom he cared for on several occasions. The church school students specialized in helping their families and others.

Students from the University of Michigan discussing conditions in Africa today with a question-answer period following.
Mrs. Kenneth Bertachy, 16029 Beverly road, and Mrs. James Shank, 19100 Warwick road, are in charge of the program for the students.

Kirk in the Hills Rummage Sale Slated May 5

Kirk in the Hills women will have a rummage sale May 5 at the Lakeshore House. Hours for the sale are 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Profits from the sale will further the work of the women's association through donations to foreign and national missions, Christian educational benevolences and especially for the Kirk's future educational building at the Lakeshore site.

MRS. DON CONNOR of Orchard Lake is the general chairman. Mrs. Andrew Yovch of Birmingham is assisting her.
