U of M Alums to Hear Lady Professor Speak

"The most stimulating, witty woman I have ever heard!"—Mrs. Norris Host, 1893 Bedford, says of Professor Claribel Baird of the University of Michigan speech department.

Professor Baird will present her impressions and comparisons of the Shakespeare companies at Stratford, Ontario; Stratford, Connecticut; and Stratford, England; to members of the Birmingham Michigan alumnae association at their luncheon at Kingsley Inn, May 3 at 12:30.

MRS. HOST who with her husband has seen plays at the English Stratford twice and has missed only one season in Ontario, also shares with Prof. Baird a deep interest in the university.

She is at present chairman of the alumnae council, which coordinates the activities of the 46 chartered alumnae groups in the United States, and in this capacity has visited 30 of them.

Local Residents Attend Michigan's AAUN Conference

The Michigan division of the American association for the United Nations annual conference was held at the McGregor Memorial Conference Center on the campus of the Wayne university, April 23.

Highlight of the meeting was a speech by Clark Eichelberger, executive director of the American association of the United Nations. The theme of his speech was "The UN is My Best."

MEMBERS of the Oakland County UN Chapter attending the meeting were Mrs. F. G. Garrison, president; Mrs. Joseph H. Shaffer, vice president; Mrs. Robert W. Fieders, hospitality chairman of Birmingham; and Mrs. Leonard Passant, Educational chairman from Pontiac and Mrs. Wm. Hambley of Birmingham and Mrs. Max Williams of Royal Oak.

During the luncheon prizes were awarded for the 1960 annual high school contest on the United Nations. This was their 34th annual contest. 3000 high schools registered in the United States, 60 high schools in Michigan and 9 schools in Oakland county.

FIRST MICHIGAN state prize was awarded to Linda Harlo of Midland. Second prize to Kathleen Agosta of St. Ambrose school in Detroit. A special award was given by the Oakland county chapter of the AAUN to Rosemary Goforth, a 12th grade pupil at the Avondale high school in Pontiac.

Any schools in Oakland county interested in this annual UN contest should get in touch this Fall with Mr. Leonard Passant, 607 De Sota, Pontiac.
