Viewing Spring Fashions

Getting a sneak preview of the clothes which will be modeled at Birmingham woman's club's annual spring luncheon and fashion show May 3 at Devon Gables are (from left) Mrs. William B. Grabendike, president, of Yorkshire road; Mrs. Ira Brownell, tea hostess, of Oakland street; and Mrs. Arthur Gillespie, publicity chairman, of Maryland boulevard. Members will receive spring hats upon arrival for favors. Table arrangements for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon will be adorned with pink geraniums and featured for the afternoon will be Eugene Tyza, baritone, who has sung for the Michigan Light Opera. Fashions will be presented by the Jacqueline Shop.

SOC Sigma Kappas Set Annual Meeting

Eighty members attended the annual Detroit area Sigma Kappa luncheon on Saturday at Fox and Hounds. The arrangements chairman, Mrs. Rutherford Hayes of Birmingham was assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Wahl of Pine Lake.

Mrs. Thomas Mitzfeld of Birmingham, Mrs. R. James Collier of Southfield, and Mrs. Herbert Rusing of Oak Park acted as hostesses.

Republican Clubs Slate Joint Meet

Charles Gordon of Republic Steel, street, between Hunter boulevard and Woodward avenue, will address a joint meeting of the Women's Republican clubs of Bloomfield, Birmingham, Franklin and Troy, at 10 a.m. May 5. This meeting will be at The Showcase, located on Brownell ing.

wash and wear jackets

by HASPEL

why?

Because they're so practical and so perfect for town and country living. The colors are fresh, the patterns provocative and the styling sophisticated...like all Haspel wash and wear clothes. The washing machine takes care of the cleaning...the dryer takes care of the pressing. Of course, if you want to, touch them up occasionally with an iron.
