Memo From Mulholland's

We feel that babies are pretty important people! So, during National Baby Week, May 1st to 7th, we are honoring babies everywhere by donating a ten dollar gift certificate to the first baby born during this week. If you know of a baby born sometime during Baby Week, be sure and report it to us at Mulholland's. He or she might just win the prize. By the way, the parents need not live in Birmingham, so you proud grandparents are included in the reporting.
