

Westwood Manor Dinner-Dance Slated May 20

WESTWOOD MANOR — Plans for their first annual dinner-dance were announced last week at a meeting of the Westwood Manor association. The party will be May 20 at Sylvan Glen and will start with a cocktail hour 7:30 p.m. Mrs. William Henderson, Jr., special chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. William W. Wilson and Mrs. Robert Templin. Plans are also underway for a July 16 beach party.

Members approved plans for handicapping the subdivision entrance and for additional landscaping. They also approved a motion to join United Home Owners association.

Little newcomer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peters of Westwood court is Virginia who was born April 1. She weighed 8 pounds, 2 ounces. The Peters' other children are Dick, 8, Bill, 5, Jim, 3, and Nancy, 1½.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milburn of Westwood court will entertain members of their dance group to tomorrow evening. Included in the group are Mr. and Mrs. James Grissom, Mr. and Mrs. Eino Nurme, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rautenberg.

Two families traveled to the wide open spaces down Texas way over the recent Easter vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Byers of Holly road took their five children to Houston to visit Mrs. Byers' family. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Major, Byers and young Rick went deep sea fishing for the first time and brought back a good catch of red snapper.

Another Texas bound family were the Robert Rices of Westwood Lane. They covered 1200 miles of Texas visiting friends and family and also stopped in St. Louis to visit friends.

Gilbert Lake Couple Host Ohio Guests

GILBERT LAKE—Easter week and visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Begle of East Millerville were Mrs. Begle's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Atkins and Larry, Cindy and Bryan. They arrived from Wadsworth, Ohio.

Arriving home recently from New York were Mr. and Mrs. William Shaul and Ann and Billy of East Millerville. They visited Shaul's mother in Stamford.

Mrs. Philip Caldwell of Peabody drive recently invited neighbors for morning coffee to meet two new neighbors. Newcomers are Mrs. Waite Stoddard who recently moved to Peabody drive and Mrs. Charles Jones who will soon move to Peabody drive.

Spending Easter weekend in Chicago were Mr. and Mrs. George P. Breiten and their daughter Barbara of Carnegie road. Barbara was home for 10 days from Wittenberg University. She returned to school from Chicago.

Joyce Adams, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schewe of Cotton tail lane, came from MSU to spend a recent weekend with the Schewes.

A happy event last week for Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Longdyke of South Millerville was the arrival of their second grandchild. Sheryl Lynn was born April 19 to the Longdykes' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson.

The Frank Dicks of Maple road returned last weekend from a Caribbean cruise. With their children Mark and Leslie, they flew to Florida where they boarded the SS "Frank" ("C"). They enjoyed two weeks cruising in the Caribbean with stops for sightseeing in such places as Puerto Rico, Haiti and the Virgin Islands.

Dance on Pool Bottom With No Aqua Lungs

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—If scrubbing the swimming pool sounds like hard work, take a tip from the J. D. Richardson of North Gleanery. Just turn the whole operation into a party. That's what their daughter, Donna, did when she invited her friends to a pool scrubbing party.

Armed with plenty of cleanser and brushes, they turned in some good scrubbing music on the stereophonic sound system, climbed down in the empty pool and had a ball scrubbing and dancing.

Coming home from a vacation cruise recently were the Frank W. Lynches of Covington. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch and Sally, a student at Smith college, and saw several shows before sailing on the SS Ohio Ford to Nassau, Haiti, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

They visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Arnel in Nassau and saw the Elmer formen of Lathrup at Dorado Beach. Sally celebrated her 16th birthday on board ship.

An Easter weekend visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlachter of Plymouth was Susan Schlachter, Sr., of Cincinnati. She joined the family for the tradition of Easter morning egg hunt.

Moms Support Library Program

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Mrs. Mary Kieffer, librarian for Bloomfield Hills elementary schools, conducts a story hour for pupils at Vaughan schools but when she leaves to visit the four other school libraries, the moms will take over. As a result of a workshop system and "so much enthusiasm," Mrs. Kieffer says, the library program is now run by 133 mothers under her supervision. Sally Heavenrich and Tess Henderson take over at Vaughan. Betty Shout heads the program at Hickory Grove; Ruth Owen at Pine Lake; Shirley Richey at Wing Lake, and Helen Lindaberry at Eastover. The women volunteer their services to meet the needs of the avid reading youngsters.

Pine Lake PTO Slates May 6 Open House

PINE LAKE — Children and teachers at Pine Lake school are busily preparing for the May 6 open house, a special feature of the final PTO program of the year. Parents will be invited to visit the classrooms to see the student exhibits on display.

Cups of pink B-B-B will conduct a flag ceremony at 8 p.m. to open the brief business meeting which will precede the classroom visits.

AN ELECTION will be held to choose three couples for two-year terms on the board. Mr. and Mrs. William Doers, chairman of the nominating committee, have submitted Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ralston and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Tector for voters.

Further nominations from the floor will be accepted providing the nominee has consented.

T-SHIRTS BEARING a Pine Lake school insignia will be on sale this year. From the proceeds, $25 will be given to the Bloomfield Hills teachers' education fund to provide grants for teachers in the Bloomfield school system. Individual contributions may be added to this gift.

At this month, a $5 prize will be awarded to the class with the highest percentage of parents present. The March prize went to Mrs. Thomas's fourth grade with a record of more than 50 per cent attendance. Refreshments will be served by mothers of fifth and sixth grade.
