Lawsuit (Continued from Page 1-A) huge sewer project in service. One would be a lawsuit against Detroit. Norman R. Barnard, county corporation counsel, stated Wednesday that his office is preparing for legal battle pending the DPW THE SECOND possibility that would solve the county's woes is the strong chance that the South-Oak may be reborn. Oak Park City Manager Virgil C. Knowles met Wednesday in Lansing with John Myers, engineering director of the state highway department. They were to discuss a joint plan for construction of such a drain. According to Alexander, Southfield was also invited to attend the meeting, hinting at a merger that would give Detroit its flood relief and the county, a hook up go ahead. EIGHT-MILE facilities are a must, according to Detroit, to stop heavy flooding primarily at North-western Highway and some 3,000 feet from the Rouge River where it crosses Eight Mile road. The flood waters are from municipalities on the north side of the Detroit boundary.

How To Judge The Value Of Your Newspaper Have you ever judged the value of your newspaper? What it actually means to you and your family? Then, let's prouse a second and analyze its true value. Right from the very first page to the last, your newspaper is packed with all the latest news about your community, your county, your township and municipal government. Also there's business and daily news and sports coverage. For mother, there are features that appeal to her whether it's fashion... social events... home-making or a dozen other feminine interests. In all these and many other fields, you'll find this a complete family newspaper... a newspaper that becomes a family affair the minute it arrives.

George Ewing Leaving B'ham Birmingham YMCA Youth Secretary George Ewing has resigned his position here to accept the post of executive of the Eastern Branch YMCA in Washington, D.C. He will assume his new post Sept. 1. As youth secretary for the local Y, Ewing was in charge of the "Y" Indian Guides, aquatic program, day camp and Troy girls' HEY. Since he came here in June, 1955, the number of Indian Guide "tribes" grew from four to 30. No successor for Ewing has been chosen yet.
