Spurn Safety Devices
And Lose Your Life

Birmingham area motorists are literally driving themselves to death.
"Too often they're ignoring traffic signs and signals, which are designed for their protection," law enforcement officers declared.

They emphasized that the sole purpose of traffic signs, signals, pavement markings and other devices is to state the law, to warn of hazards and to give assistance and protection to all street and highway users.

THEY CITED these facts:
1. One out of 10 drivers in a fatal traffic accident fails to keep to the right of the center line.

2. One out of 7 ignores stop or warning signs, passes improperly or does not have right-of-way.

3. Three out of 10 drivers in fatal traffic accidents exceed speed limits or safe speeds.

POLICE SAID these and other facts on auto accidents, including those involving cars and trains, are contained in the annual report on the Signs of Life program by the

Youthful Campers Flee
As Forest Fire Races By

About a dozen Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills boys in their early teens arrived home safely Monday after fleeing the forest fires that raged around a day, last week.

Though it meant coming home a day, or two earlier than scheduled, the evacuation of Lost Trail camp was forced as a safety measure lest winds change and spread beyond the 4,000 acres already consumed by flames.

Unable to contact Paul Gerhardt, one of the camp directors, Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills boys were taken to the Birmingham Eccentric spoke to some of the young campers to learn the details of the exodus.

JIM PATTERSON, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Patterson of Surrey road, reports that some of the boys in the Lewis and Clark group had been on a four day pack trip and returned Saturday to find the area veiled in smoke and the fire about three miles from the campsite.

Each camper was given an hour to pack his belongings. The campers managed to load most of the valuable equipment on trucks. The boys were all taken to Minto where they were the guests of the Sigma Nu fraternity through Sunday.

In the group were Herb Mills, Bill Pardee, Tom Chambers, Dave House, Gary Hummel, Rick Will-
