Thursday, August 4, 1960

Parenthood is one of life's most serious and trying responsibilities. Some of us do it with a good, or a poor job as parents. Most of us, however, in our silent and serious moments, pledge to do even better. Yet the statistics on this subject do reveal that many of us do not prepare ourselves for these important tasks. Our modern tempo of living allows too little time for many parents to tend to this.

Wing Lake Family Return from Mexico

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—WING LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pitts of Wingcroft court returned last weekend after vacationing in Mexico for three weeks.

With their children, Tom and Nancy, they went to Mexico City first, then spent four days in Tuxco. After sightseeing they went to Acapulco where they spent two weeks.

DEVON BROOK—Vacationing for a month aboard their 35-foot cruiser were Mr. and Mrs. John R. McDermott and their daughter, Jacquelyn. They cruised to Georgetown Bay stopping along the way. When they arrived at Manitowish Island and spent a week at Okechabee Lodge before a leisurely cruise home.

Applebys Back From Vacation In Maryland

WING LAKE—Visiting the Elwood Engels of Franklin road are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Lees of Florida. They arrived Saturday and plan to stay for three weeks.

The Engels recently spent a few days in Osceola with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Lord. Going away parties have highlighted the summer at the Engel home. Mrs. Engel recently entertained an afternoon tea for Mrs. Stany Hage who moved to Chicago. Mrs. Engel's mother, Mrs. Charles Imboden, gave a going-away party for her daughter, Miss Ellen Imboden, who is touring Europe. A letter from Ellen received during her recent hot and humid weather told the Engels how cool it is skiing in the Alps.

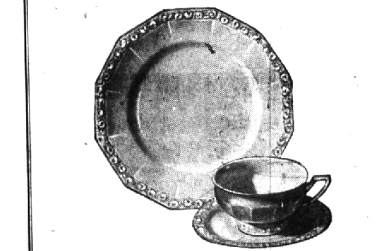

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—Members of the Bloomfield Heights W.N.P.G. held their annual party on July 22. Although everything didn't go exactly as planned due to a sudden storm, the excitement of a quick change in plans added to the fun. The committee headed by Mrs. D. W. Nelson had planned a poolside party at the home of the James W. Martins.

The unexpected storm washed away the Japanese decorations so the guests left all behind and went to the home of the August Shaaks on Sodon Lake drive for a potluck dinner and dancing.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—Spending a few days at Klinger Lake recently were the Charles Livingstons of Sodon Lake drive and the Clifford R. Kellstroms of Terry road. With their children they took cottages along with several other families and the men enjoyed playing in a golf tournament.

FOXGROFT—Returning from a tour of New England recently were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hassall and their sons of East Surrey. They motored east with a stopover at Niagara Falls. After touring New England, they spent several days in Atlantic City and New York. Highlight of the trip for Tom and Kent was a visit to the newly-opened Freedom Land in New York.
