The costumed guests danced on the patio while Hawaiian style roast pig was turning on a spit over a pit of hot stones. Invited guests were the Robert Nelsons, the Howard Beers, the Eugene Gates, the Charles Moores. Others were the Robert Wallaces, the Edmund Duffers, the Joseph C. Swagers, all of Charing Cross road.

The Joseph Strayer of Wrenwood drive recently entertained at a tea introducing her new neighbor, Mrs. Joseph Wilson of Wrenwood drive, an afternoon tea. Shades of yellow in daisies and gladiolus centered the mantle and table.

Wrenwood drive was asked to pore. The 26 guests attending were all area residents. Also present were relatives of Mrs. Strayer, Mrs. William Jastrov and Miss Ellen Robinson of Grand Rapids, Michigan who have been houseguests during the past week.

Hostesses visiting the John Swagers, Jr. family of Lanegan drive for the week were parents of Mrs. Swagers, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of Harrisburg, Pa.

The Fred McGuire's of Burnley drive have had many houseguests during the past month. Visiting from San Jose, Calif. for three weeks were the McGuire parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGuire, Sr. Other California guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Foltz, relatives from West Covina, former residents of Livonia.

Parents of the Foltz's stay the Lee Foltz's of Detroit co-hosted a Sunday afternoon "open house" at their home at their Burnley drive residence, inviting 85 friends and relatives. Assisting were the Charles Reifers of Birmingham. Charles A. McGuire flew in from New York City to spend the week with his brother and family. They came from Florida Beach, Fla. for a month's visit.

The McGuire's are now looking over to the west and are in the Wendel Butlers of Fon du Lac, Wis. The Butlers formerly lived in Chicago.

The Bud Webbers of Patch drive enjoyed a five day visit from their nieces and nephews, David and Elizabeth Wilkens of Saginaw, last week.

The weekend they took their guests home and visited Webbers parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Weber, Mrs. Weber, all residents of Saginaw.

Visiting the Fred Weirs of Chalgrove drive during his 10 day leave was the Rev. Francis Whitman of Wicks class in the navy. He is presently stationed at Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Frances Whitman of Wicks, Scotland and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Holliday of Toronto, Canada were recent houseguests of the Weirs.

The James Jones and children, Jim, Michael and Cindy, of Charing Cross road, spent the last week at the Weirs.

The Keith Ackley's of Northover drive will visit the Thousand Islands in Alexandria Bay, N. Y., on their vacation this year. Their children will accompany them.

Mrs. Robert Montgomery of Greentree road entertained at a "get acquainted coffee" introducing new neighbors last Wednesday morning. Meeting the 20 area residents were, Mrs. Wai Chao of Patch drive, Mrs. Alfred Traylor of Northover drive and Mrs. David Lewis, who will be moving into her new home on Patch drive the first week in September.

The Robert Montgomeries drove to Mona Lake in the Muskegon area to spend the weekend with the George Montgomeries and to pick up their children, Kay and Ann, who have been visiting their grandparents for the past week.

Home from a three week trip through Maine, Massachusetts and Connecticut, are the Stanley Westbergs of Burnley drive. They made stop in Danvers, Conn. to visit Mrs. Westberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Wilson, for a few days.

The Dick Aylwards of Tullamore drive are back home after a two week trip to New York. Accompanying them were their children, Deborah, Chris and Ann. They visited relatives, the Jack Aylwards at Great Neck, Long Island, and spent a weekend at Montauk Point.

MRS. JOSEF BOHMER

I'm Buying Income Securities... HERE'S WHY!

"At first I didn't know what to do with the money John left me. I set some aside for insurance and savings, but I felt I wanted my extra money to work for me—you know, give me a regular income. Friends suggested I look into real estate and investment securities. I looked into both and found the stock and bond market offered me many advantages.

"The ease of investing was one thing. Another was the expert advice and assistance I got from Watling, Lerchen & Co. The securities I bought give me a steady income and may increase in value the longer I hold them. Also, if I ever change my mind and wish to buy different securities, I can do so very easily and quickly."

Investment objectives are many and varied. Let a Watling, Lerchen & Co. representative help you attain yours through a planned investment program. Phone or mail the coupon for more information.
