

Crawford-Cartwright Vows Exchanged in Royal Oak

Margaret Elizabeth Cartwright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank S. Cartwright of Glenhurst drive, Birmingham, became the bride of Albert Raymond Crawford at a double ring ceremony Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian church of Royal Oak.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Crawford of Royal Oak. The Rev. Thomas W. Kirkman officiated at the ceremony. The bride wore a full skirted, silk organza gown with a Sabrina neckline of alencon lace. The skirt featured a front panel of bouquet taffeta with alencon lace motifs and was washed with a back bow falling into a chapel train.

Her French illusion finger-tip veil fell from an imported alencon lace cap encrusted with sequins and seed pearls forming a shell pattern. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of amazon lilies and stephanotis.

HER MATRON OF HONOR, Mrs. Robert Strieter of Fraser wore white organza embellished with yellow and a yellow sash. Her gown had a full skirt with short sleeves and scoop neckline. She wore a yellow headband and veil and carried a bouquet of white gladiolus and shattered carnations with yellow trim.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Roy Ward of Royal Oak; Ellen Crawford of San Francisco, sister of the groom; and Mrs. Richard Scheraburg of Royal Oak, wore gowns to match that of the matron of honor. Their gowns were trimmed in blue to ensemble.

LAWRENCE LOCKHARD of Clawson was the best man and guests were seated by Peter A.

Enrolled in School
Ann Jean Spoelstra, 516 Kennelwood, Birmingham, is enrolled as a resident student in the one-year secretarial course at the Katherine Gibbs School, New York. She will start her work September 20. Miss Spoelstra, a graduate of the Birmingham high school, attended the University of Michigan.

FOR HER traveling costume, the bride wore a dark blue silk shantung suit with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The couple will make their home in Birmingham, following a two-week wedding trip to Jamaica.

Morgan, Dunlap United Saturday

The Lower Long Lake home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Key Morgan provided a beautiful setting for the marriage of their daughter, Pamela Jane, to Daniel Cummings Dunlap on Saturday afternoon. The bride's parents are formerly of Kansas City, Mo. The living room of their Bloomfield Hills home was chosen for the ceremony at which the Rev. Frank Gentile of Southfield officiated.

The bride wore a waist-length white tulle gown with alencon lace applied on the sweetheart neckline and around the French piping at the hem. Her fingertip white tulle veil was secured by a small headband of tulle and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

HER SISTER, Mrs. Amos L. Roberts, Jr., of Kansas City, was honor attendant and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Dean C. Allard, Jr., also a sister of the bride, of LYNNE ROBERTS, niece of the bride, wore a short white dotted swiss dress and carried a miniature of the bridesmaid's bouquets. The groom's father, Chesley M. Dunlap of Lexington, Mass., acted as best man for his son. The ring bearer was Tommy Roberts, nephew of the bride. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Morgan chose a moss green silk dress with crossed bands of pale blue silk molding the bodice. The groom's mother was gowned in a full-skirted blue silk dress with a scoop neckline. Both mothers wore orchids. GUESTS AT THE wedding included the groom's four sisters, Sally, Louise and Susan Dunlap and Mrs. Robert Cowden. The Cowden's two small daughters also attended the wedding. All are of Lexington, Mass. The bride's traveling outfit was beige silk sheath and jacket with moss green accessories. The couple will reside in Norfolk where Mr. Dunlap is a pilot with the military air transport service.
