

Jenette Pauline Faber Weds Knight Houghton

Knox Presbyterian Church, Leamington, Ontario was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Jenette Pauline Faber to G. Knight Houghton. Officiating at the ceremony was the Reverend Hugh G. Claghorn.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frederick J. Faber and the late Frederick J. Faber of Leamington. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Hal H. Houghton and the late Hal H. Houghton, Leamington.

Jenette's wedding gown was of white Swiss eyelet organza over pink satin, featuring scoop neckline and short sleeves. The trim of pink satin formed a large butterfly bow in back of the full skirt which fell into a court train.

THE DOUBLE-tier illusion veil was held in place by a crown of white Swiss eyelet organza studded with pearls to match her gown.

Carried atop her prayer-book, white rosaries cascaded to the floor, completing her outfit.

reception was held in Knox Hall. The bride's traveling outfit consisted of a green and white suit with matching accessories. The couple will be honeymooning in San Juan, St. Croix and St. Thomas in the Caribbean.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Faber chose a dusty rose dress with matching accessories. Highlighting the ensemble was a corsage of green butterfly orchids.

Mrs. Houghton selected a pale blue silk dress with matching accessories. White butterfly orchids accented the outfit.

The newlyweds will make their home in Birmingham.
