

Bloomfield South

South of Maple
Marian Patrick — MA 6-3022

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH—The F. T. Kents of Bradford drive west, Bloomfield south, prepare a picnic lunch for their youngsters who are enjoying a view of Lake Toga, Yosemite National park. The Kents recently returned from a 7,000-mile trip through the western United States.

Westchester Family Takes 7,000-Mile Trip

WESTCHESTER—Nine-year-old John Kent is still a bit undecided as to his preference between Frontier City, Disneyland or the Grand Canyon.

John with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Kent and his sisters, Pat, 15, and Rosemary, 13, recently returned to their home on Bradford Drive W. from a vacation trip covering some 7,000 miles.

TAKING ROUTE 66 west, the Kents visited St. Louis, Oklahoma City, Albuquerque, Flagstaff, Grand Canyon, Las Vegas and Hoover Dam, which was of particular interest to Pat.

Meadowlake Auxiliary Elects New Officers

MEADOWLAKE—The women's auxiliary of the Meadowlake Farms civic association held its annual election of officers July 20 and chose Mrs. Robert Davison to head the group for the coming year.

Officers elected to serve with Mrs. Davison are Mrs. John Holmes, vice-president; Mrs. John Suidam, secretary; Mrs. Stewart Wilson, treasurer and Mrs. Hutch B. Dunbar, corresponding secretary.

The new board of directors include the above listed officers and Mrs. Clyde Fulton, Mrs. Harry O'Drook, Mrs. Raymond Collick, Mrs. Edward Ledermann, Mrs. Joe Paim, Mrs. Ted Gray, and Mrs. Vic Beer.

Mrs. Clyde Fulton of Meadowlake road was the hostess at a luncheon July 28 honoring Mrs. Stewart Wilson, retiring president of the women's auxiliary of the Meadowlake Farms civic association.

Guests, all members of last year's board of directors, included Mrs. Tom Holmes, Mrs. Jack Greenshield, Mrs. Grover Ramser, Mrs. Jack Suidam and Mrs. Robert Davison.

An old fashioned box social sponsored by the Meadowlake WNFCA was held Saturday at the home of Mrs. Harold Rowe on Valley Spring drive.

Colorful umbrellas, tables covered with red and white checked tablecloths, balloons and crepe paper streamers decorated the patio.

While the box social was an event that recaptured a bit of the past, the lunch boxes were most modern in design.

Mrs. T. J. Bancroft packed her lunch for two in a gold cone-shaped holder decorated with ribbon bows; Mrs. Clyde Fulton brought a lunch box covered with woven pink ribbons and fresh flowers, while Mrs.

Ted Gray's lunch was wrapped in a roll-dotted tablecloth and tied to a stick, hobo fashion. Lucky numbers were attached to each box and prizes were awarded the winners.

Club members and their husbands enjoyed dancing to hi-fi music later in the evening.

Proceeds from the affair were earmarked for the scholarship fund.

Responsible for the party were Mrs. John Greenshield, Mrs. Victor Beer, Mrs. Calvin Miesel, Mrs. Leo Mrowczynski, Mrs. Faith Taber, Mrs. Grover Ramsey, Mrs. Richard Lindgren, Mrs. Harry O'Drook, Mrs. Ted Bancroft, Mrs. Harold Rowe and Mrs. John Munz.

Gale Habre, daughter of the L. A. Habries of Valley Spring drive, returned home recently from a month's tour of the New England states.

On the tour, sponsored by the America Youth Hostels, were four boys and four girls. One was Barbara Luick of Flint, Gale's friend.

Mrs. Habre and Mrs. Luick drove the girls to Springfield, Mass., and the Springfield College Camp youth hostel, the starting point of the tour.

Accompanied by their leader, Miss Nancy Slocum of Grand Rapids, the group cycled through Cape Cod and visited Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard; just two of the many interesting stopovers.

Before Mrs. Habre drove down to bring her daughter home, Gale visited Barbara Nelson in Medfield, Mass., and at the family summer home at Snug Harbor, The Nelsons were former residents of Franklin.

Bloomfield North—Wing Lake — Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Anderson Jr. of Maple road have returned from a week in Maryland where they visited his aunt.

They took Linda and Larry with them on the sight in Washington, D. C. While the children stayed in Maryland the Andersons spent a few days in New York.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Honoring bride-elect Virginia Schneck of Grosse Pointe last Sunday were the Carson B. Harman of Glengarry Circle. The Harman invited some 30 guests for a supper party and tabletop shower.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Enjoying their annual visit to Cape Cod this month are Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wollinger of Yarmouth. They left Aug. 1 for their annual visit to their many artist friends. Mrs. Wollinger will spend the month painting.

FOXCOFF—The Robert J. Haefner family of Valley Forge traveled north recently to vacation with Mrs. Haefner's family at the Northport Point on Leelanau Peninsula.

FOXCOFF—Little newcomer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Gava of Crabree road in Bruce who was born July 20. He weighed seven pounds, 12 ounces. The Gava's other children are Kristine, 6 and Kent, 3½.

GILBERT LAKE—A little grass shack overlooking Diamond Head on the shores of Gilbert Lake was the tropical island setting Saturday night when the Francis Gallaudette's son, Ed, and Tris Coffin and Jim Hough were hosts to some 40
