Long Distance Ring Means Bell Wedding

NORTH ADAMS—The telephone lines between Lakeside, Calif., and Birmingham are kept busy these days as the Michael Bells of Butterut Hill drive converse with their daughter, Carol Louise, about her wedding plans materializing in Lakeside.

Karl Louise and James Leroy White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. White of Lakeside, Calif., have set their wedding date for Sept. 3. The Bells are planning to attend the wedding. Accompanying them will be their daughter, Pamela, who will be her sister's maid of honor, and son, Roger, who will be usher at the wedding. Roger met his future brother-in-law in June when he made a trip to California. Also planning to attend the wedding will be Karl's grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stover of Detroit, who are presently vacationing in Europe.

A Mexican honeymoon will be included in Karl and Pamela's wedding plans before they set off to Pasadena, Calif. They will spend the next year in Panama while James attends the California State Polytechnic college. He will graduate in the summer of '61.

Boarding the "Milwaukee Clipper" for a seven-hour voyage to Milwaukee was a new and thrilling experience for John and Peter, sons of the Robert Wallace of Tullahoma, Tenn. The family motored on to Lake Geneva where they spent four leisurely days enjoying the scenic beauty of the area. They chose to return to Michigan via the night clipper, chalking up another first for the family.

The Charles MacMahons and children, Chuck and Holly, of Chase family of Patch drive for Greentree road, motored to Mackinac Island on Thursday to attend the weekend summer convention of the Michigan Society of Architects at the Grand Hotel. A scenic tour of the island was made by the MacMahons before returning home.

The Donald Mills and children, Sue and Randy, of Northover road joined the Robert Pittsley family (Cavell) near Port Huron for two weeks—and again the Nelsons will trek back to Hidden Valley for an additional five days.

The Bud Webers and children, Karl and Carol Ann, of Patch drive, spent a week at Arcadia Resort at Arcadia, Mich. They also took side trips to points of interest in the Upper Peninsula during their stay.

The Eugene Hasses of Hyland drive joined other area families for their semi-annual canoe trip last weekend. The group met at Pine River on Friday laden down with camping gear for an exciting 40 mile trip down the river.

Joining in the exciting trip were the Bud Carricks, the Jim Dodds, the Gordon Shiras, Howard Murray of Birmingham, the Arvid Kallens of Franklin, the Robert Hardy of Harper Woods, the Craig Ackers, man of Akron, Ohio, former Birmingham residents.

The Hasses family returned last in time for the Pine River trip after a two-week vacation at Wood Lake near Boyne City. During their stay, they visited the Soo Locks, Mackinac Bridge, Ludington and celebrated son Ricky's birthday on Mackinac Island.

This has been a busy summer for Larry, 13-year-old son of the David and Mrs. M. J. Edmonds in Birmingham. Participating in the horse shows at Groesbeck and Ann Arbor with his horse "Stormy Season." Last weekend Larry showed at the Michigan State Fair at the P.H.A. show at the Bloomfield Open Hunt.

In between the shows Larry and his family have been enjoying their backyard swimming pool.

Mrs. William Garrison opened her Rouge Circle drive garden to members of the Detroit Handweavers Guild for their summer pot luck picnic on Thursday afternoon.

The Robert Cornfields and daughters, Nancy Lee of Haddington drive, have returned home after a week of visiting friends, the House of T. Edmonds in Cincinnati. They are planning to spend a week enjoying Glen Lake and the surrounding countryside the latter part of August.

The Don Franklans and sons, Don and John, of Upton drive chose Port Austin as their vacation destination for a week of cottage life this year.

Home again after three weeks of cottage life at Pointe Lookout near Tawas are the Charles Moores of Burnley drive. Accompanying them were their children, David, Susy and Molly Jo.

Houseguests visiting the Dr. Wai Chao family of Patch drive for the next month are Mrs. Chao's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Shih of Washington, D. C.

While son John spent two weeks at Camp Maho-Goo-Tah-See near Hale, Mich., the Robert Nelsons and daughters, Barbara and Nancy, of Burnley drive, motored to the Hidden Valley for a five-day stay.

Barbara left this week for Camp Pointe on Lake Huron for two weeks—and again the Nelsons will trek back to Hidden Valley for an additional five days.

Mary Jane Edison Weds John Conlon

Mary Jane Edison and John Joseph Conlon were united in marriage Saturday at St. Catherine's church in Columbus, Ohio. Monsignor Joseph R. Casey officiated the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cole Edison, 145 Stanbery avenue, Columbus, Ohio. Conlon's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Loftus Conlon, 1965 James K. boulevard, Pontiac. He currently lives on Coolidge road, Royal Oak.

THE BRIDE APPEARED in an ivory gauze de sole fashioned gown with pearl-trimmed lines. The bodice of Alencon lace enhanced with pearls formed the high rise neckline and brief sleeves. The belted skirt featured a fan back with lace trim, topped with a half bow, and flowed into a chapel train.

An open bandeau of Alencon lace with pearl trim and bow back held the tulle veil of French illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis and phalaenopsis orchids.

THE MATRON OF HONOR, Mrs. Nelson Greene, and the bridesmaids, Jan Gueley, Carol Conlon, and Mary Ann Morgan, of the street, lured their guests to the altar.
