B'field Hills Baptists To Hold First Picnic

The first annual Sunday school picnic of the Bloomfield Hills Baptist church will be held on Saturday, Aug. 20, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Little, 3185 Franklin road.

The picnic might well be called an "old-fashioned" Sunday school picnic since it will feature such old favorites as races, relays and games with prizes for the lucky winners. But, of course, certain modern innovations have crept in. The old picnic grounds on the edge of town has given way to a spacious residential lawn. Families will arrive in station wagons rather than on the chartered streetcar and charcolod hamburgers have replaced hot-dogs roasted on a stick.

SUNDAY SCHOOL picnics are an old tradition with Baptist churches in this country and have usually been one of the social highlights of the year—especially for the children.

"This should be an historic event for our new church," states the Rev. Wallace Arthur Alcorn, "since it will be our first Sunday school picnic."

The pastor points out that "we all remember similar picnics of previous churches with a good amount of nostalgia. We share a sense of continuity in this tradition and expect it to become part of our own church life through the years and, thus, enhance our Christian fellowship as it has for so many other churches."

SUNDAY SCHOOL superintendent Herbert Barshun adds that this is certain to become an annual event. He invites all friends of the church and those interested in becoming acquainted with the group to join with members at 1:30 p. m. and to stay through the picnic supper hour.

St. Paul Methodist Vacation School Starts This Week

The daily vacation church school of the St. Paul Methodist church, 165 E. Square Lake road, Bloomfield township will be held Aug. 15 thru Aug. 26. Sessions held each day from 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. will feature classes for children and youth from three years of age thru senior high.

The theme for the study this year will be "The Church and its Work." The program will include bible study, projects, crafts and planned recreation.

CO-DIRECTORS for the school will be Mrs. Richard Graves and Mrs. Charles Robinson.

They will be assisted by Mrs. James McClung, Mrs. Charles Butler, Mrs. Howard Nelson, Mrs. Wilford Malsand, Mrs. William Grez, Mrs. Fred Linnard, Mrs. Burton Harrington, Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Mrs. Robert Howell, Mrs. Martin Strubel, Mrs. M. J. Frank, Mrs. Nancy Niceman and Mrs. Dell Franck.

Mrs. Orley Peterson, Mrs. Fred Harroun, Mrs. James Sisk, and Mrs. Audrey Wertman. Also assisting will be Misses Harriet Zimmerman, Judy Noren, Janice O'Neil, Linda Fotheringham, Virginia Guthrie, Lois Zimmer, Pamela Norton and Pat Harrington.

Clergyman-Author To Speak Aug. 21 At Kirk in the Hills

A dynamic clergyman-author, whose latest book, "The Storm and the Rainbow" was a best-seller, will visit the Kirk on Sunday, Aug. 21.

The Rev. Dr. Lowell Russell Ditzgen, pastor of the Reformed Church in Bronxville, New York, and nationally known for his writings and radio TV appearances.

DR. DITZEN has spoken at numerous colleges and has preached abroad in several countries. He has participated in ecumenical work here and abroad and was granted national awards for his sermons seven years in a row from the Freedom Foundation.

Area Woman Attends Baptist Conference

Mrs. J. A. McGravah, 25400 W. 14 Mile road, Birmingham, was one of more than 300 delegates who attended the recent national missions conference at the American Baptist assembly, Green Lake, Wis.

Dr. Roland Metzger, chaplain of the Union Mission Medical Center, Kimpere, recently evacuated from the Congo spoke at the opening session. Foreign missionaries and home missionaries were also in attendance.

Missionary From Lebanon Speaks Aug. 21

The Rev. Carl Agerstrand, missionary in Lebanon, will be guest preacher on Sunday, Aug. 21, at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, 400 E. Lincoln.

Before entering the ministry he was president of Agerstrand Corporation, manufacturer of precision engine parts, in Muskegon. In 1947 he resigned his position and entered upon full-time work in the church.

HE WAS commissioned as a Lutheran Lay Missionary in August of 1947. The following year he went to Lebanon where he has been working among the Arabs. He has been active in particularly in founding a number of orphanages and boys' homes in Beirut and in Jerusalem.

He is presently on furlough and is spending the month of August in the Detroit area.

Holy Week Top Of Aug. 21 Film At First Baptist

All the happenings of Holy Week are portrayed in "Triumph and Defeat," a full color motion picture scheduled at 7:30 p. m., Aug. 21 at the First Baptist church.

"Triumph and Defeat" shows the trials before the Sanhedrin, Herod and Pilate; Jesus overthrowing the tables of the money changers in the temple; the last supper; the kiss of Judas as he betrays Jesus in the garden of Gethsemane and the crown of thorns.

Miss Sus Heath will bring the devotional thoughts and give the background setting for the film.

The church family night dinner, scheduled for the film showing, has been cancelled.
