North Adams Ship Takes Third in Mackinac Race

NORTH ADAMS — The "Challenge" came through with flying colors to take third place in Class E in the Mackinac race this year. Manning the 34-foot racing sloop was its skipper, William McCurdy and son, skip of Lanegan drive, along with its crew.
This Mackinac race will live long in Skip's memory as it was his "first." McCurdy was presented with a trophy in a ceremony held on Mackinac Island following the race.
Driving up to the island and waiting to greet the "Challenge" was Mrs. McCurdy and son, John. From there the McCurdys set sail for a three-week Georgian Bay cruise.
Another Lanegan drive family home from a three-week sojourn to Florida are the Charles Howsons and children, Cheryl, Sharon and Chuck. Accompanying them was Howson's mother, Mrs. Sarah Howson, Lincoln Park.
They made stops in Corbin, Ky., and Gatlinburg, Tenn., before setting sail for the ocean's edge at Miami Beach for two weeks of sunning and swimming. A side trip was made to the Keys before their trip home.
Getting back to reality is quite a chore for Mrs. Reid Mac Guddin of Haddington road, after her recent two-week South American cruise.
Mrs. MacGuddin bid her husband and the six little MacGuddins goodbye, and joined her mother and sister, Mrs. Naomi Nell of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Don Cameron of Des Moines, Iowa, in New York.
They boarded the San Paula ocean liner for their Caribbean cruise. Their ship stopped at the ports of Caracas, Venezuela, Aruba, Curaçao, Jamaica and Nassau, for tours through the market places, native villages and the picturesque countryside. The trip was a reunion treat Mrs. Nell had long been planning for her daughters.
Arriving to spend the weekend with the MacGuddins are houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stolle of Northfield, Ill., former Detroit residents.
Indian Trail Lodge on Traverse Bay was the vacation destination of the Robert Wallaces and sons, Jeff and Peter, of Tallamore drive, during the last ten days. Joining them were the Robert Mankin family of Akron, Ohio. The group spent many leisurely hours sailfish boating and going on old silver hunts.

Vows Exchanged In Nuptial Mass

A noon nuptial mass at Gesus church- united Linda Louise Wilson of Detroit and Joseph Bowen Finnie of Birmingham in marriage last Saturday.
A reception at Dearborn Inn following the ceremony preceded the couple's departure on a honeymoon to Cape Cod, Mass.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edward Wilson of 18063 Santa Barbara, Detroit, and the groom is the son of Mr. A. J. Mrs. Joseph Anthony Finnie, 10-9 Pilgrim, Birmingham.
REV. FR. ALBERT McFarland, O.F.M., uncle of the groom, officiated at the wedding ceremony.
Matron of honor was Mrs. Louis M. Cameron, Saginaw, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Valerie Finnie, sister of the groom, Miss Catherine Rohrig and Miss Joyce Martin.
Best man was Philip D. Conway, Jr., and ushers were Philip John Corrigan, Donald Wilson, brother of the bride, Joseph Petroski and James Boardin, 9, junior usher.
For the ceremony, the bride wore a crystal white gown of coronation tulle with an embroidered alenon lace bodice and brief sleeves.
CONTOUR FOLDS of silk defined the high waistline and the bouffant skirt belled in sideswept fullness, spreading to a court train.
Black interest was found in a Dior fringed panel which fell with into the sweep of the skirt.
The bride's fingertip illusion was held by a crown of Swedish seed pearls and matching lace.
The bride's flowers were a cascade of stephanotis, Phalaenopsis orchids and ivy.
HER ATTENDANTS wore open blue silk organza sheaths with matching tiered overskirt and rose organza headpieces in open blue.
They carried rubrum lilies in cascade.
The bride's going-away costume was a maine linen suit with white accessories.
