B'ham Girl Is Bride Of Arthur Howard, Jr.

The First Methodist Church of Birmingham was the scene Saturday evening of the marriage of Carolyn Ann Shattuck, daughter of Mrs. Perrin Burt Shattuck of Henrietta street, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Shattuck. Miss Shattuck became the bride of Arthur Anthony Howard, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard of Lake Leelanau, in a double-ring ceremony performed by Dr. Harry O. Martin.

The bride wore a full length white silk organza gown with short sleeves and chapel length train. The scoop neckline was fashioned with taffeta silk appliques and the same appliques adorned the skirt. Her full fingertip veil was attached to an orange blossom halo crown. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis centered with Amazon lilies.

THE HONOR attendant, Ruth MacKenzie of Birmingham, wore champagne silk organza with a sari neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt highlighted with rose beige floral appliques. Her head-dress was a spray of champagne and brown foliage and her flowers were a cascade of pink sweetheart roses.

Marjorie Read of Davison, Charlene Schadt of W. Lafayette, Ind., and Betty Howard, sister of the groom, of Lake Leelanau were the bridesmaids. Their gowns matched that of the maid of honor.

FOR HIS best man, the groom chose Richard Strader of Baltimore, Md., and his ushers were Lynwood Knudsen of Detroit,

WYLMA JOY FORTUNE

Parents Announce Troth of Wylma Joy To Robert Asperger

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fortner of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Wylma Joy, to Robert G. Asperger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Asperger of Dearborn.

The bride-elect attended Eastern Michigan university. Her fiancé is a graduate of Eastern Michigan university and will hold a teaching fellowship at the University of Michigan this fall. He is working at the university on his graduate studies.

No wedding date has been set.

MRS. A. A. HOWARD, JR.

Larry Oliver of Brighton, Robert Rorich of Battle Creek and Robert Howard, brother of the groom, of Lake Leelanau.

Mrs. Shattuck chose a pink silk organza and lace sheath with pink and white accessories for her daughters wedding and the groom's mother wore a turquoise blue eyelet sheath with matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchids.

A RECEPTION was held at Devon Gables and the couple then left for a week in Ontario. For her traveling costume, the bride wore a toast and black silk dress with white and black accessories and white Amazon lilies. They will make their home in East Lansing.

East Coast Honeymoon For Newlywed Couple

Denise Donmoyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Donmoyer of Sheridan drive, Birmingham, was united in marriage Saturday to James Richard Huddle. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Huddle of Pleasant Ridge. The ceremony took place at St. Joseph's Episcopal church, Detroit.

The bride was gowned in ivory silk taffeta with three-quarter length sleeves, edged in Battenburg lace and ending in a chapel train. Her Swedish crown of the same lace held a three-tiered silk illusion veil and she carried stephanotis and white philanopsis spray orchids.

THE MATRON-OF-honor, Mrs. M. H. Gietto, sister of the bride, of Lawrence, Kansas was dressed in shell pink silk organza. Her gown had a scoop neckline with three-quarter length sleeves and full, deep-hemmed skirt. She wore a halo of pink satin and stiff nylon tulle, accented the piping on her dress. Her flowers were pink sweetheart roses encircled with pink carnations in a noeskey arrangement.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Roger Harmon of Chicago, Adele Lucas of Birmingham and Linda Huddle, sister of the groom. They wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant.

Clara Novatney of Detroit was the best man. Guests were shown to their seats by John Middle-worth, Charles Mack, Don Colliston, Harvey Buss and James Rowde.

The bride's mother chose a powder blue lace sheath with matching hat accenting the blue satin trim on the Sophie original. The mother of the groom wore a meadow-green sheath with contrasting accessories of beige. Both mothers pinned spray orchids to their purses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Detroit boat club. For her wedding trip to Cape Cod and Maine, the bride wore a teal blue and beige ensemble with matching beige accessories.

The couple will make their home in Ann Arbor where Mr. Huddle will continue his engineering studies and the new bride will teach junior high school.
