

Beverly Heym Married In Candlelight Rites

The First Methodist church, Birmingham, was the scene of a candlelight wedding Saturday, Aug. 13, uniting Beverly June Heym and Ronald Wayne Barrett in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Heym of Lathrup and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Barrett of Vicksburg. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Arnold Runkel.

The bride selected a full-length silk organza over taffeta gown with a chapel train. The scoop neckline was trimmed with seed pearls. Her prayerbook bore cascading philadelphus orchids and ivory and her pearl crown was attached to a silk illusion veil.

HER HONOR attendant, Carol Elaine Heym, wore a capote blue, cocktail length dress with scoop neckline and a wide belt. The gown was silk organza with a bell-shaped skirt. She wore a flowered headress and her flowers were arranged in a cascade of pink mums.

Wearing identical gowns, the bridesmaids were Linda Barrett of Vicksburg, Susan Gauntz of South Bend, Ind. and Elizabeth Barrett of Lathrup. Their flowers were yellow.

Scott J. Cleveland of Hastings was the best man. Guests were seated by Kyle E. Hinesden, II, of Kalamazoo; Monte Barrett of Vicksburg and Dennis K. Barker of Battle Creek.

Maureen E. Cassidy Weds Robert J. Dunn

A papal blessing was bestowed upon Maureen Elizabeth Cassidy and Robert James Dunn at their wedding Saturday at the Shrine of the Little Flower church, Royal Oak. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Cassidy of Royal Oak. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Dunn of Detroit. The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin officiated.

For her marriage, the bride chose a white silk mist gown designed with an empire bodice and accented with roses and leaves of seed pearls. Her prayerbook bore cascading philadelphus orchids and ivory and her pearl crown was attached to a silk illusion veil.

BARBARA ELLEN BYSTRON was maid-of-honor and Mrs. Jerome Miller and Mrs. Norman Bouren were bridesmaids. They were matching gowns of beige and white silk checked organza. The honor attendant carried a corsage bouquet of yellow carnations with ivory and the bridesmaids' flowers were tangerine carnations in a similar arrangement.

The best man was Herbert C. Dunn, brother of the groom. Seating the guests was Norman S. Warrick and the bride's brothers, Patrick T. Gerald G. and Bernard W. Cassidy.

The bride's mother selected a Ruffalo print gown with accents of royal blue and green with matching hat. Mrs. Dunn chose a French gown of nylon tulle over net for her son's wedding.

The wedding breakfast followed at Meadowbrook country club. For her wedding trip to northern Michigan, Montreal and Quebec, the bride wore a brown cotton suit with sable brown accessories. The couple will reside in Ypsilanti.

Saturday Ceremony Gets Papal Blessing

A Papal blessing was bestowed upon the marriage of Sharon Lee Courtney and Richard Eugene Orrico on Saturday in Precious Blood church with Father Granger officiating at the double-ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Courtney of Marquette avenue are the parents of the bride and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Orrico of Birmingham.

The bodice and long narrowed sleeves of the bride's gown were re-embroidered alenon lace. The skirt fell in deep folds of rayon and silk taffeta mist and her silk illusion veil was held by a crown of re-embroidered lace with seed pearls. She carried white Amazon lilies surrounded with stephanotis.

ATTENDING THE BRIDE as her honor attendant was Mary Ann Sullivan. She and bridesmaids Yvonne McLeod, Mrs. Robert Sitar, Mrs. Len Petroff, sister of the groom; Mrs. James Galvin and junior bridesmaid Diane Orrico wore identical gowns of gold silk shantung. Their headpieces were small crowns and they carried bouquets of cymbidium orchids with creton leaves.

Larry Herberholz was the best man and seating the guests were Thomas Courtney, Jr., brother of the bride; John Walsh; Norman Van Riper; Benny Williams and Bud Moore. The ring bearer was Johnny Petroff, nephew of the groom.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the Detroit yacht club. After their return from their wedding trip to Las Vegas, the couple will make their home in Farmington.
