Sundberg, Riley Exchange Vows

Holy Name church, Birmingham, was the scene of the marriage Saturday of Susan Clemens Sundberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl William Sundberg of Bloomfield Hills, to Robert Kemp Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen Riley of Bloomfield Hills. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Eugene Paddock officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a Dresden gown of blisse white mousseline de soie. The bodice was designed with a turnover Flemish collar of embroidery edged with guipure lace and bracelet-length bishop sleeves deeply cuffed with the same embroidery and lace. Matching trimming dipped from the shoulders to a point at the waistline, front and back, and a small bowknot centered the back waist. The bouffant skirt belled to a brief train.

HER HEADPIECE was a tiny Queen Titania crown of pearl buds and mousseline petals attached to a misty veil of silk illusion. She carried a crescent bouquet of stephanotis, centered with a white orchid and cascading ivy.

The maid-of-honor, Karen Sundberg, sister of the bride, wore a crisp azure bias and white party check organza gown fashioned with deeply rounded décolletage and shoulder covering sleeves. A fan-shaped inset of white organza trimmed the bodice with a bowknot at the center of the Empire waist. Her curved skirt was demilength and accented with a panel of white which fell in a widening pattern to the hem. Her flowers were blue daisies that accented a headswath of daisies and blue veiling.

THE BRIDESMAIDS Karen Parrish and Andree Gallaudet, and Wendy Sundberg, junior bridesmaid and sister of the bride, wore gowns to match that of the honor attendant.

The groom chose Ralph Frederick as his best man and usher were Dan Riley, brother of the groom, Jack Lutz, John Zammit and William Spalier.

The bride's mother chose a sea-foam green Italian silk short-sleeved sheath with square neck and a hat of matching feathers, shaped into a small cap. The mother of the groom wore a pearl-gray, full-skirted silk dress with brimmed matching hat, trimmed in veiling. Both mothers carried cymbidium orchids pinned to their purses.

A garden reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Turquoise, yellow and white striped tents, canopies and umbrellas tables with a profusion of daisies decorated the scene.

'Some Feed'

Mrs. John Jefferies, 11200 Balmoral, Birmingham, engages in conversation with Charles Patterson, of Ford Tractor, Birmingham, between bites of seafood at the Red Run clam bake Saturday night.

He will be accompanied by Corrine Rottachaefer of Holland, Miss World of 1960. Also present will be Consul to the Netherlands, William Von Weller and Mrs. Von Weller. Another club event for September, is its own 1960 flower shower in the auditorium on Sept. 21 and 22. It is being planned by the flower and garden committee, headed by Mrs. Frank J. MacDonell of Birmingham. Mrs. John A. Reuter is also a member of this committee.

AS I POUND OUT THESE last few words on my typewriter I am coming to the end of my three-week stand as society editor for The Eccentric.

There is not much left to say at this point. I have completely run out of "society sounding stuff", and am looking forward to Shirley's return tomorrow to her desk and her job, one which no one else but a woman should try to take. It has been fun and I have enjoyed it. Of course, credit for any success which I may have had in this endeavor must be distributed equally to the many people who have aided me in the hour of trial.

Accolades must go to the rest of the editorial staff, who, after they got me into this mess have done an honorable job in helping me get out.

Fraise must also go to the "boys in the backshop" who have tolerated the many changes which occurred during Shirley's absence.

And I can't forget Irma Davis, our Lathrup correspondent, who in many cases has not only been by right arm, but my left arm too.

Thank you also, Thank you for the kind words about my endeavor during our phone conversations and our personal meetings.

And so, Shirley will be back tomorrow (Wednesday) and things will be back to normal again. I will be returning to Michigan State in a few weeks, and believe me, there won't be a male classmate of mine up there who has had the experience I've had these past three weeks.

Thanks again . . .
