Texan Becomes Bride Of Donald Bosworth

Karel Lynn Faass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Milfred Faass of Dallas, Tex., became the bride of Donald Arthur Bosworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Granville Bosworth of West Fourteen mile road, Birmingham, on July 30. They were married at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church.

Charlotte Bosworth was maid of honor and John Shafer was the best man. Seating the guests were Gerald Beers and junior usher Peter Naderhy of La Grange Park, Ill. Peter is a cousin of the groom.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was held at Devon Gables. The couple visited western Michigan for their wedding trip and then returned to Ft. Sill, Okla. After Dec. 15 they will make their home in Birmingham.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Naderhy of LaGrange Park, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Patton of Villa Park, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Miller of Northlake, Ill. and Mrs. James Paddock of Lombard, Ill. All are relatives of the groom.

Other guests from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Faass, Jr. of Kalamazoo, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meulendyck and Mrs. E. W. Brouwer of Grand Rapids, all relatives of the bride.

Marie Lindquist Weds C. Frederickson, III

Marie Lindquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melville B. Lindquist of Englewood, Colo. and Charles Richard Frederickson, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ogden Vogt of Puritan road, Birmingham, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon. The Rev. A. B. Patterson officiated at the ceremony which took place in Christ church, Denver, Colo.

For the double-ring ceremony the bride chose a gown of white ribbed taffeta with a wide-circle neckline etched with re-embroidered chantilly lace. A softly tucked midriff caught with lace motifs, was finished with a flat bow in back and garlands of the exquisite lace, twined down into the full chapel trained skirt.

HER MULTI-TIERED illusion Two-Day Exhibition Of Art Scheduled

A two-day exhibition by the Tints and tones art club will be held Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Michael Apotelli, 1318 E. 14 Mile road, Royal Oak from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Watercolorists will be displayed and the public is invited to attend.

The bride chose a gown of white ribbed taffeta with a wide-circle neckline etched with re-embroidered chantilly lace, tied with a full bloom rose and streamers drifting to the hemline of the skirt. Her picture hat was of matching green tulle with soft flat bows.

The bride-maids, Mary Jo Kellogg and Sally Winters, both of Denver wore gowns to match that of the maid of honor.

The bride's mother chose a gown of beige chiffon with satin trim and full skirt. The mother of the groom wore a navy chiffon sheath shaded to gray and both mothers wore orchids. The groom's father, W. Ogden Vogt, served as best man. Guests were shown to their seats by Donald H. Haugh and Lee Abernathy, both of Birmingham and Nicholas Colbert of Bloomfield Hills.

MRS. C. R. FREDERICKSON, III

Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for a wedding trip to northern Michigan. The couple will make their home at Ann Arbor.

'Harvest Fest' Planned At Wing Lake School

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH-BIRMINGHAM FARMS—Westward Ho . . . , on Oct. 31. A covered wagon will roll on Maple to Wing Lake school that day to add a touch of the old west to "Harvest Fest", the first social function for the new school year.

Plans for the event got underway at a meeting held at the Sandalwood drive home of Mrs. George Thomas, general chairman. The purpose for the function is threefold; to meet new neighbors, to renew old acquaintances and to supplement equipment in the school now provided for by the board of education.

There will be a chicken open pit barbecue, entertainment for the children and music and songs for all. Mrs. George H. Schaffer will work closely with Mrs. Thomas as her co-chairman. Other chairmen include Mrs. Harold W. Carlson and Mrs. Robert C. Slick, foods; Mrs. Peter Nielsen and Mrs. Robert S. Gell, decorations; Mrs. William C. Giddy and Mrs. Harold Johnson, tickets.

Five-year-old Ronald, who completed a series of swimming lessons last before the family left on vacation, surprised everyone by swimming across the lake and back, a distance of 1½ miles.

FRANKLIN WOODS — Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gentry of Pickering road, with their four children Gordon, Ronald, Bruce and Carol, returned recently from a two-week vacation at Haliburton Ont. Nine-year-old Ronald, who completed a series of swimming lessons last before the family left on vacation, surprised everyone by swimming across the lake and back, a distance of 1½ miles.

BLOOMFIELD MEADOWS — Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Colby lane was a member of the wedding party at the recent marriage of her sister, Margaret Buckley and John Bondi at Jesu Church, Detroit.

A garden reception was held at Rosford Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Suydam of Mark court with their daughters, Carol Anne, Ruth Ann and Virginia Anne, have returned from a two-week vacation in northern Michigan.

Warm summer weather and a recently completed swimming pool were a perfect combination for a cocktail, dinner and swimming party given Aug. 21 by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fulton at their home on Meadowlake road.

Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bud Krichbaum of Huntington Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Knauer of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Clare of Birmingham.

The Fultons will again entertain Aug. 28 for cocktails, an outdoor barbecue and swimming.

Attending from the Meadowlake area will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Danahy, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pais and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaPlant. The Willard Robinsons will drive out from their home in Royal Oak as will the Charles Lifkas from Grosse Pointe.

The Blue envelope project of the Tuesday Musicals was launched Friday with dessert and coffee at the home of Mrs. Philip R. Flanders of Brentford drive, Bloomfield Hills. A work session of the ways and means committee followed.

Mrs. Flanders and Mrs. Bogdan Baynart are co-chairmen of the committee which is getting out a mailing to members. Each affiliate of the organization is charged with the responsibility of filling her blue envelope by raising designated funds for the philanthropic work of the group. Their goal is providing music in hospitals, scholarships, student aid and other worthy projects.
