North Adams Residents Return from Vacations

NORTH ADAMS—Many North Adams area residents have returned from their summer vacations and are comparing notes with their neighbors and friends.

Back home after a three-week sojourn through the west are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lewis and daughters Pat, Charlotte, Joyce and Karen, of Henkew drive. With their heavy itinerary the Lewis family found they couldn't stay more than two or three days at any one place. During their travels, they visited Grand Canyon, Bryce and Zion Canyons, Los Angeles, San Diego, Yosemite National Park, Mount Rushmore and the Badlands of North Dakota.

The Leon Butlers and daughter, Edie Lynn, of Oakhill drive, are back home after spending a few days on Harsens Island. During their stay, they were visited by the Paul Stacers and children of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prucha of Beverly Hills. The Butlers also spent three days at Fishermans Wharf near St. Charles.

The Thomas Gays, family of Whitney court, enjoyed the past two weeks at Mentor-on-the-Lake near Mentor, Ohio. Joining them on the vacation were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bolster of Washington, D. C.

The Bolsters returned to Birmingham with the Gays to spend another two weeks before returning to Washington.

Mrs. Clifford Mezey and children of Oakhill drive joined her sister, Mrs. Murray Binkley of Detroit at Caswellville for a week at the Brinkley cottage.

The Floyd Warstler family of Bolingbroke drive packed up and left for a week of cottage life at their cabin near West Branch. Accompanying them was Rita Getner, granddaughter of the Edward Getners of Bolingbroke drive.

The Joseph Montgomery family of Weatherhead drive chose to spend their two-week vacation touring northern Michigan. They spent a few days at Crystal and Higgins lakes enjoying cottage living.

Visiting the Kenneth Foosta of Bolingbroke drive for two weeks were Mrs. Martin Welke and daughters, Sandy and Marsha, of Milwaukee, relatives of Foost. Welke joined his family here after the first week.

The Foosta left for a week in Alliance, Ohio, where they will be visiting friends, the Albert Mathias. On the Foosta return they will move into their new home on Asbury Park in Detroit.

Tom and Kelly Starr, sons of the Roland Starrs of Oakhill drive, are spending this week at Camp Greenwood, a junior high camp near Greenwood, Mich.

The Donald Smiths of Oakhill drive have been spending most of the summer at their island home in Georgian Bay near Midland, Can. They returned home only to row and trek back for another week on the island.

Returning with Mrs. Smith and daughter, Jeanie, were friends of Jeanie, Nancy Collins and Judy Lucas of Birmingham. Their last part of the season to Georgian Bay will be the Labor Day weekend.

Visiting the Smiths in their Oakhill drive home for a few days is Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Jane Goodale of Ann Arbor. Flying in from Europe on Aug. 20, she spent a short visit with the Smith family in Miss Grace Mann of Seattle, Wash. Grace spent the summer in Europe and will be returning home and then on to the University of Washington on Sept. 6.

The Smiths' son, David, enlisted July 11 for a two-year hitch in the medical corps of the U.S.N.R. and is stationed on the U.S.S. Massachusetts and the only physician for the ship's 1500 men. He is looking forward to an early leave in November before embarking on a six-month South Pacific cruise.

The Smiths' son, Ross, recently left Philadelphia for Boston where he has taken a position with WBCN, an FM radio station.

The Robert Schwabs of Oakhill drive spent ten days of their vacation at Blancy Park in the Upper Peninsula. They took side trips to Western college and the University of Wisconsin so daughter, Donna, could look them over.

Last weekend the Schwabs took the Aquarama to Cleveland to visit friends, the Edward Sills. They returned via the Aquarama on Monday.

Donn Schwab has had a busy summer visiting friends at cottages in northern Michigan. Ten days were spent with Jeanie Smith and her parents, the Donald Smiths of Oakhill drive, at their cottage in Georgian Bay. Another week was spent at Sand Lake.

The Harold Hall family of Meadowlane drive spent one of their vacation weeks at Traverse City. They returned recently from a week in Missouri, visiting Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall. Presently visiting the Hall family is a nephew, Peter Meier, son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Meier of Monroe. The Halls are contemplating a weekend at Gratiot Inn, minus children, over Labor Day.

Lake Leelanau in northern Michigan was selected by Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Koehler of Far Hill drive as their vacation playground for three weeks this year. Enjoying the leisurely life with them were their son and daughter, Bill and Kay.

Rose Ann Getner, granddaughter of the Edward Getners of Bolingbroke drive, joined other Birmingham girls this week for a five-day stay in Toledo, where they will attend the Summer School of Catholic Action.

John Badger of Omaha, Neb., former resident of Leonard lane subdivision, visited his University family, the E. A. Linders of Westchester road last weekend.

The Badgers and son, Bruce, plan to return to Birmingham during Thanksgiving week for a family reunion.

Sunday Performance Sponsored by Women

The Birmingham women's club will sponsor the Sunday evening performance of "Two for the Show" for the benefit of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs. The Northland theater.

A percentage of the receipts will be used for the club's project, which is the State president of the Federation. Tickets for Sunday night are available through Mrs. Thomas Burns or Mrs. Matthew Cammareri.

Girls' Town was first started by Mrs. William O. Merrill, Sr. when she was State president of the Federation. Tickets for Sunday night are available through Mrs. Thomas Burns or Mrs. Matthew Cammareri.

Remember When Crabgrass Was A Problem?

You get the hot dogs, I'll finish off the crabgrass. All it takes is CLOUT® and an accurate Scotts Spreader. CLOUT destroys even the big, tough crabgrass plants. Simply fill the Spreader, set the dial to 7, and walk the lawn. Takes only 30 minutes, about as long as a round trip to the supermarket.

More and more folks are coming to us for advice on improving their lawns through an easy-to-follow Scotts Program. Come in anytime. We'll be glad to prescribe the correct Program for your lawn.

Save $5.00! Scotts Spreader (16.95) plus Clout (6.95) together only 18.90
