Beverly A. Bell Wed In West Coast Rites

FRANKLIN—Beverly Ann Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Carleton Bell of Brandingham, became the bride of Gordon Walrath last Thursday in candlelight ceremonies at the Westwood Methodist Church in Los Angeles.

The bride's parents flew to the West coast to complete arrangements for the reception at the Beverly-Hilton hotel following the 8 p.m. ceremony.

HER BROTHER, Robert accompanied them to serve as the best man. Former Franklinite, Sally Roseberry, daughter of the Harold Roseberrys was Beverly's only attendant. Both girls have been sharing an apartment in San Francisco for the past six months. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Percy Walrath of L.A. and formerly of Birmingham.

Jane Anne McKenzie Married in Florida

Jane Anne McKenzie, daughter of Mrs. John Thomas Phelan, formerly of Birmingham, and the late T. Curtis McKenzie, was married Saturday to Paul Douglas Mullin, son of Mrs. George Mullin of Birmingham and the late Mr. Mullin. The ceremony took place at the Community church, Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, Fla.

The bride's gown was white peau de soie with an embroidered seed pearl bodice and chapel train. She carried her maternal grandmother's Bible and her flowers were lily-of-the-valley and orchids.

Mrs. James A. Ritter of Sherman Oaks, Calif., was the matron-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Jerrold Frost, Jr. and Judy Frost, both of Birmingham; Mrs. Robert Hawkins of Rock Island, Ill. and Joyce Mosser of Chester, W. Va. All were identically gowned in mint green chiffon with matching veils and chapel trains. They carried brown cymbidium orchids.

Best man was Robert Hume of Alliance, Ohio, and ushers were Robert Tolle of Canton, Ohio; Scott Weed and Jack McKenzie of Fort Lauderdale, and James A. Ritter of Sherman Oaks, Calif.

The bride's mother chose beige chiton and green orchids for her daughter's wedding.

A reception at the Sea Ranch Lakes club house followed the wedding.

Braes No. 3 Slates Annual Corn Roast

WEST BLOOMFIELD—BRAES—Once again it's time for Braes No. 3 annual corn roast. This year's affair will be Aug. 27 at the Braes Pond. The children's party will begin at 5 p.m. with games, prizes, soft drinks, corn and hot dogs. The committee request that parents accompany pre-schoolers. At 5 p.m. youngsters will return home.

The adults will gather at 7 p.m. for supper (corn and hot dogs) and an evening of fun. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Mason Lindamood, 5755 Killebrew road.

Chairman for the roast are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell, of Lockwood road.

WALNUT LAKE — Sept. 7 at 7 p.m. will find members of the Walnut Lake women's bowling league lined up at Sunset Lane ready to roll their first game of the season.

There will be eight teams of four women each. Anyone in the Walnut Lake area interested in joining a league whose members bowl primarily for the fun of bowling may contact Mrs. J. W. Feeley, 5756 Killebrew road.

BRAES — Skyline beauty and soft maple trees may soon add beauty to residential landscapes in the Braes No. 3 subdivision.

Directors of the subdivision have made arrangements to purchase trees from the Walnut Lake WSPGA for fall planting. The board will pay half the cost of two trees for each resident.

Trees will be delivered at a central point in the subdivision after the first frost. Residents will be notified where and when to pick them up.

Braes residents interested in purchasing these trees should place their order before Aug. 27 with Mrs. Gordon H. Fossie, 1876 Inverary road.

WALNUT LAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Foster of Inkster road were host at a shower and neighborhood get-acquainted party last Saturday evening honoring Miss Alice Miller and Walter Connor.

Miss Miller and Connor will be married Aug. 27 at Holy Name church. Following their honeymoon, they will return to the Connor's residence at the lake to make their home.

During the evening, guests enjoyed colored slides taken by Miss Miller on their recent European tour.

Guests who gathered to welcome Miss Miller to her future home were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Lear, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bek, Mr. and Mrs. George Champ, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mullis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Latham, Mrs. Dorothy Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Foster of Pontiac and Joe Quado.
