

LeMessurier, Flack United

Christine Jan LeMessurier, daughter of Mrs. T. James LeMessurier of Kensington road, Birmingham, and the late Mr. LeMessurier became the bride Saturday of James Kirkpatrick Flack, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Flack of Larchie, Birmingham.

The ceremony took place at St. James Episcopal church, Birmingham, with the Rev. W. Eugene Snodgrass officiating.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Harry Winborn of Birmingham, the bride was gowned in white bouquet tulle with a portrait neckline and traditional sleeves. A narrow band of ice blue satin trimmed the bodice and the skirt, which fell into a chapel train.

SUSAN VON POLHEMUS

Susan Von Polhemus And Robert L. Helm Set Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Von Polhemus of Captain Lane, Franklin, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan, to Robert Louis Helm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Helm of Bokford, Ill.

She will be a senior at the University of Wisconsin school of physical therapy where she will also be a laboratory assistant in the physiology department. She is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Her fiance is a senior studying Civil engineering at the University of Wisconsin and he is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi.

The wedding date has been set for Dec. 26.

HER GOWN was embellished with re-embroidered alencon lace.

dotted with pearls and crystals. The fingertip silk illusion veil was held by a band of alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of white alencon ribbons with trails of ivy.

The maid-of-honor was Annette LeMessurier, cousin of the bride, and bridesmaids were Carol Decker, Nancy Doherty and Karen Parrish, all of Birmingham. They wore pale blue embroidered laticette with satin sashes and carried cascade bouquets of pink enchantress geraniums and ivy.

JOHN FREDERIC EMAN of Grand Rapids served as best man and usher, were Robert G. Libby and William W. Watkinson, both of Birmingham; David A. Allhouse of Wyandotte and Anthony J. LeMessurier, brother of the bride.

Mrs. LeMessurier chose a dusty-pink linen sheath and the groom's mother wore green cotton chiffon. The bride's mother's flowers were rhubarb lilies and the groom's mother wore beige cymbidium orchids.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the church.

For her wedding trip to Wainwright, Long Island, the new Mrs. Flack, Jr. wore a widgeon blue suit with matching accessories. The couple will reside in Birmingham.

Story Hour Registration Slated Sept. 6

Parents of pre-schoolers are invited to circle Sept. 6 on the family calendar as that is the day registration opens for the first of the 1960-61 series of pre-school story hours at Baldwin public library.

Ann Borch of the boys' and girls' department staff reports that there are five-year-olds whose families live in Birmingham or who hold non-resident cards are eligible to attend. Registration may be made either in person or by phone.

The maximum number—25 boys and girls—is expected to be reached quickly, since these ever-popular morning programs will be held in the colorful Storyland Alcove in the newly completed wing of the library. Thus, prompt registration is advisable, warns Mrs. Borch.

STORIES, GAMES, and finger plays comprise each of these half-hour meetings. Starting date is Sept. 13 at 10 a.m. This first series will continue every Tuesday morning through Oct. 18.

Your Old Sheets, Pillowcases Can Still Be Useful

If you are taking advantage of local department store white sales, take a second look at your old sheets and pillow cases before relegating them to the closet for dust cloths.

The Michigan cancer foundation, a torch drive agency servicing cancer patients in Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties, can use your old sheets to make cancer dressings.

Don't throw away a piece of cloth that can bring relief to a cancer patient. A torn, discarded sheet can bring comfort to a suffering human being.

CALL THE Michigan Cancer Foundation, Temple 9-0710, or the information center in your community.

Besides the Cancer Center in Detroit, other Foundation offices are located in Wyandotte, Dearborn, Mt. Clemens, Berkley and Pontiac. Consult your local telephone directory for listings.
