

Couple Repeats Vows In Episcopal Church

All Saints Episcopal church in Detroit was the scene Saturday for the marriage of Karen Elizabeth Tazgart to Stewart Lynn Schultz. The Rev. Ralph W. Parks performed the 7:30 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 350 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of shimmering white satin reflecting the elegance of the Renaissance. Pearls and iridescent paillettes fringed the embroidered alencon lace which encircled a rose pattern over the molded bodice designed with a petal scalloped bateau neckline.

MRS. STEWART L. SCHULTZ

A PRINCESS' ran of the jeweled alencon held in place her tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and white orchids and wore a string of pearls which had belonged to her maternal grandmother.

Mrs. Carola Schomshack, Patricia Hutchison and Martha Reilly.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holley D. Tazgart of San Jose boulevard, Lathrup Village. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart F. Schultz of Walnut Lake road, Birmingham.

Attendants were gowned in peau de soie of gem colors styled with rounded necklines, three-quarter length sleeves and short bell-shaped skirts flaring in soft Watteau pleats.

HONOR attendant was Linda Anne Tazgart and bridesmaids

Each wore a matching coat can outlined in pearls and carried bouquets of feet mums and feathered pink carnations. Ralston Schultz stood as best man and ushers were Donald Kristola, Robert Krohn and Larry Luoma.

MOTHER of the bride chose a gown of silver grey silk brocade with matching accessories and shaded pink cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Schultz selected a gown of turquoise and bronze imported brocade and a corsage of brown cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds are motoring to the Smokey Mountains. The bride's traveling costume was a black suit. They will live in Birmingham.

Many a housewife spends two hours a day telling her neighbor she doesn't have enough time to do her housework.

A person with charm is one who can make another feel that both of them are pretty wonderful people.

Mary Elizabeth Welsh Weds James C. Doyle

Mary Elizabeth Welsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Welsh of Bloomfield Hills, became the bride of James Charles Doyle son of Mr. and Mrs. L. John Doyle of Lynnfield, Mass., Saturday at Holy Name church.

Her gown of re-embroidered alencon lace was designed of a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt, a cummerbund of silk mist accented with an oil bow. A can of matching alencon lace secured her silk illusion veil. Her bridal bouquet was white feathered carnations. JAGINA Diamanti of Bristol, Pa., was her maid of honor. Her gown was a Jewel toned blue satin sheath with a satin overskirt having an interesting back detail. Her hat was of matching blue satin and her flowers were a cresset of feathered white carnations.

In similar gowns and hats were bridesmaids Gail Erikson of Cambridge, Mass., Nancy Evans from La Grange, Ill., and Pat Gifford of Indianapolis, Ind. Attendants were the bride's sorority sisters at the College of William and Mary. DON CLARK of River Edge, N. J., former classmate of the bridegroom at Notre Dame, was the best man. Serving as ushers were Thomas Mekus of Chicago, Ill., James Sickles of Birmingham and John Welsh, brother of the bride.

Following the reception at Oakland Hills country club, the new Mrs. Doyle changed to her blue and beige tuxedo suit with beige and brown accessories.

After a short honeymoon, the newlyweds will reside in Moline, Ill.

Bed's Better Than Cramming for Exam

The student who crams the night through before an exam would probably be better off in bed, according to Dr. Lincoln Pettit of Michigan State university, author of the book "How to Study and Take Exams."

"Examinations these days demand a clear head far more often than a thousand jumbled statements of facts," he said. "Fatigue may erase whatever little progress seems to have been made."

Some other Pettit tips: Eat breakfast on examination morning. Don't berate yourself unduly on your ignorance of the subject; suggestions of fright beget fright. Everyone reads Eccentric classified ads because they're packed with bargain items every week.

Skating Club Opens

White Jr., 629 Pleasant and Rusty Longwell, 715 Pleasant, practicing for the grand opening today at 4 p.m. Looking on is Mrs. Harvey J. White.
