

Stolen Automobile Crashes into Garage Of Beverly Man

BEVERLY HILLS—Police are still searching for two escapees from the Boys Vocational school in Lansing who abandoned a stolen car after it crashed into the garage of a Beverly Hills man last week. The crash caused about $400 damage to the garage owned by Ray H. Whittemyer, 17600 Kirkwood. Identification found in the car showed the boys were among six control after leading police on a three-mile chase through the side streets of Birmingham. They fled on foot.

Local Girl Takes Part In Radio Program

LATHRUP — Kathy Ofenstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ofenstein of Cambridge, entertained fellow Chorale members following the Dumbly-Catholic Central game recently.

A member of the group for 18 months, Kathy and her friends appear on WIR on the "Make Way for Youth" program, first listen to them on Tuesday evenings at 7:30. Directed by Don Largo, their selections vary from light opera and spirituals to the latest rock 'n' roll.

Kathy is a senior at Our Lady of Mercy high school. Mrs. Milton Ringland says she can hardly wait to go back to Baja, Calif. in Mexico and the wonderful vacation hideaway she and her husband visited recently. So remote that its only communication with the "outside" is by short-wave radio, all supplies must be brought in by plane, ship or mule.

The Ringlands made the trip the modern way: flying in on a private plane owned by California friends. They found Baja, reputed to have one of the most beautiful coastlines in the world, a fabulous accommodations—not at all regarded as they had been jokingly forewarned.

The couple also included stops at San Jose and Palm Springs on their trip and visited former Bloomfield Hills residents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thompson in Scottsdale, Ariz.

St. Bede's Teen club members enjoyed a happy Friday evening at Roy's ranch near Walled Lake. The group averaged a special social treat every other month or so — some 60 plus members and guests lay-hugged it this time. More about their proposed Christmas party later.

Can't imagine how we missed greeting this nice family, The Harvey Begnoche family moved to the former Edward Dooley residence on Meadowood in late summer and they are well worth knowing. He is a certified public accountant associated with White, Bower and Freese, Detroit and likes an occasional game of golf.

Mrs. Begnoche enjoys needlepoint and turns out some nice examples herself. They have two sons, Bruce, 10, and Brent, 7. She is already a room mother at Lathrup school.

Brian Maser, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maser, celebrated his fifth birthday with several little friends on Nov. 18, though the big day came two days afterward. Dinner and games were just what the small-fry ordered.

For a much older son, Andy, the Alex G. Billeasons visited the University of North Carolina over the holiday weekend. He is pledged to Chi Psi fraternity.
