New S. Michigan Piper Distributor

Frank P. McCartney, 4567 Burnley drive, Bloomfield township, president of Aerodynamics, Inc., announces that firm is the new Southern Michigan-area distributor for Piper Aircraft corporation. This means that all owners of Piper and other aircraft in this area will have new service facilities for their aircraft. Aerodynamics, Inc., is a Piper factory-service center and is located at Pontiac Municipal Airport. The Birmingham dealer for Piper aircraft is Berr Flying Service, 15857 Hiwood, Beverly Hills.

New Phillip Layne Shoe Store Opens In Downtown B'ham

A new downtown-Birmingham men's shoe store, Phillip Layne Shoes, 162 S. Woodward, will hold its grand opening ceremonies all next week. The establishment, the third opened Philip Layne of Detroit in the metropolitan area, has an Early American interior and will feature Jarman, All Edmonds and Bass Wejans brands of footwear. Roy Pritchard manages the store, which opened for business Nov. 30.

State Farm Has New 'Risk' Plan

Harold F. McGill, district manager for The State Farm insurance group, whose office is at 17341 Kinross, Beverly Hills, announced today a new insurance plan for Michigan motorists who have a hard time getting auto insurance. Single male drivers over 25, men and women drivers over 45, and drivers of all ages with minor driving infractions on their records are targets of State Farm's new "standard risk" program. McGill said the insurance may cost more than the amount most drivers pay, but there is a provision for lowering the cost through accident-free driving. B'ham Man Speaks V. Leonard Hanna, 616 Saffield, Birmingham, vice president-finance and treasurer of Fenster, Inc., Detroit, was one of the principle speakers at the Detroit Research Institute "Profitability Accounting Seminar" held recently in the Motor City.
