Danny Puddington, six-year-old first grader at Baldwin school, displays a gaily decorative Yule log, traditional English custom at Showcase Exhibit Center, 136 Brownell, Birmingham.

NORTH ADAMS

Bloomfield Township
(East of Woodward) & Troy

Elizabeth Yates
MI 6-1682

Garden Club Members 'Beef up' Yule Party

Osage garden club members will be escorting their husbands to their second annual "Men's Night" Christmas dinner party at the new Clawson YWCA on Monday evening.

At the social hour preceding the dinner, guests will be served punch from a holly decorated punch bowl. Centering the Christmas smorgasbord buffet will be a 65-pound standing rib of beef. A chef from Monahans will serve it. The variety of tantalizing dishes to be served will be special recipes from the members' own kitchens.

Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Peter Linder of St. Clair Shores, who will show movies of their recent European tour. Planning the Osage event are ways and means chairman Mrs. Frederick Oliver and Mrs. Mary Ann De-Witt, and program chairman; Mrs. Bernard Jacobson.

Western country club held a Christmas luncheon and fashion show at the club house on Wednesday afternoon. The fashions were modeled by Marge Fisher and Dittrich furs.

Coming away with many Christmas ideas were Charnwood residents Mrs. Harry Macksey, Mrs. Mary Ann DeWitt, Mrs. Clifford Roland, Mrs. John Vogt, Mrs. Harold Kalbfleisch and her guest, Mrs. Al Keil of Birmingham.

Mrs. Richard Smith of North Adams road, Mrs. L. D. Patterson of Wendover road and Mrs. J. L. Barton of Binbrooks drive attended the Norway luncheon at the International institute in Detroit last Wednesday. Each week a different country at the institute hosts the luncheon, using their country's special dishes.

The C. W. Conleys of Dogwood court will be spending the holiday season at their winter home at Pompano Beach, Fla. They plan to continue living in Florida for the Barney, of Greentree road spent four days deer hunting at their cottage on Black Lake in northern Michigan recently. The men found the deer scarce in the area but enjoyed tramping through the great outdoors.

The Westchester road home of the Clarence Frahms has been a busy place the last two weeks. The activities began with a chop suey dinner party in celebration of the birthdays of Frahm and son David. Their birthdays fall on the same day.

A family reunion followed Thanksgiving week with Mrs. Frahm's mother and sister, Mrs. H. Coffey and Katherine Coffey, former Detroit residents, arriving from Palm Beach, Fla. for a visit. David Frahm and family of Detroit joined the happy reunion, the first in seven years. Son Paul, an apprentice airman with the U. S. Navy arrived from Rhode Island for a few days visit with the family.

On Saturday evening an open house was held at the Frahm residence for friends of their visiting family.

A dinner party was hosted by the John Vogts in their Charnwood drive home on Saturday evening. Their guests included the Clifford Rolands, the Harry Mackseys, the Edward Smiths and the Harold Kalbfleischs, of Charnwood subdivision.

Holiday weekend guests at the Edward Beck home on Meadowlane were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gump of Milwaukee, Wis. Also home from Western Michigan for the weekend was their daughter, Judith.

The Charles Bethel family of Meadowlane drive spent Thanksgiving holiday and weekend visiting in Cleveland, Ohio. They were guests of Mrs. Bethel's relatives, the S. W. Ashleys of Cleveland Heights and the Henry Kuhlmans of Solon, Ohio.

The Weldon Worthleys of Charnwood drive entertained their children and family, the Ken Worthleys of Troy on the recent holiday. The Wendell Ming family of Clawson also joined the group.

Newcomers from Charlotte, N. C. are the Jeffery Tenneys of Square Lake road. They have three sons, Jerry, 12, attending Baker junior high; Jeffery, 4, and Ward, 2. Tenney is sales manager of Mead packaging, inc.

Women Writer's Club Sets December Meet

Mrs. Walter Jackson of Madison avenue, Birmingham, will speak before the Detroit Women Writer's club 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Women's City club. Topic of her speech will be "Don't Apologize for Michigan" and "A Few More Notes on What You Already Know About Writing."

Mrs. Jackson teaches magazine writing at Birmingham community house and has just become Institute Coordinator at MSUO. She will also report on Breadloaf conference, Middlebury, Ve., which she attended last summer.

New York Tenor, Honored Guest

Bloomfield Hills branch of the Woman's national farm and garden association held its Christmas meeting Monday at Kirk in the Hills church. Mrs. Raymond T. Perring was in charge of the program. Mrs. Roger Kyes was in charge of hostesses for the day.

Soloist was Wesley Dalton, operatic tenor from New York. He has sung with the Detroit Civic Opera and the New York City Opera and has made many recordings. Dalton has studied in New York and Rome.
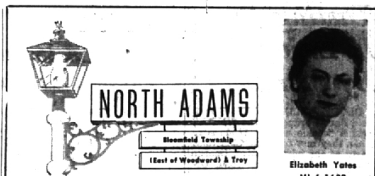

Decorative Yule Logs Displayed

Keynoting the happy Christmas Fair at Showcase Exhibit Center, will be the sale of decorated Yule Logs. A charming, traditional English custom, originating during the joyous week of long ago Christmas festivities.

A hand written inscription, in old English script is attached to each Yule Log. Emphasis will also be made on many do it yourself projects for decorating and gifts.

The Christmas Fair will be held through the 24th from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., except Saturday, when the Showcase will be open until 5 p.m. and on Sunday from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Skating Club Party

Mrs. James Kent, of E. Long Lake road, was among those who helped plan a Christmas decoration party given Dec. 6 at the Detroit Skating club on Seven Mile road.

Alums Gather To Make Gifts

Both groups of the North Woodward alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma will meet Tuesday. The afternoon section will have a 12:30 luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Cameron, 710 Suffield, Birmingham.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Frank McInnis, Mrs. Oren Wallace and Mrs. Everett Hammonds. Mrs. James Wichert will conduct the business meeting. Mrs. John Cavan will teach members to make Christmas gifts for children at Pontiac hospital.

The evening group will meet at the home of Mrs. John Siegesmund, 315 Hupp Cross road, Birmingham, at 8 p.m. Assisting her will be Mrs. D. R. Hibbert, Mrs. James Temple and Mrs. Carl Waldrep.

Members will meet for their annual Christmas party, during which they will make decorations and gifts for the children of Pontiac hospital, under the direction of Mrs. Peter Grylls, 1842 Bates, Birmingham.

winter while Conley commutes back and forth to Michigan on business.

The Byron Daileys and son,