

SOUTHFIELD—Reminiscing about their recent trip to the United Nations, Southfield high school government students Ken Howard (left) and Bill Starkey watch as Don Berman points to the UN display on the blackboard. Government teacher James Owen (right) made the trip with the boys. They were chosen by the school H-Y on the basis of their marks, dependability, service to their school and ability to express themselves. Each student's trip was sponsored by a local organization.

Musical Programs Will Mark Yule In Area Schools

BEVERLY HILLS—Christmas music by grade students will replace December PTA meetings in all three public schools, Beverly Hills principals report. The first program is slated for 7:30 p.m. Dec. 15. It will be performed by fifth and sixth graders at Greenfield. Mrs. Alma Cook will direct the vocal selections; Mr. Burt Bronson will direct the instrumental.

Beverly school follows on Dec. 19 with music by fifth and sixth grade band and choir starting at 8 p.m. Larry Franklin will direct the instrumentals and Margaret Machan will conduct the vocal program. The Valley Woods school program, by students from grades four through six, will be on Dec. 21 at 8 p.m., with Eugene Hanson directing the instrumentals. Miss Machan will conduct the vocal program.

A subscription to The Eccentric brings you the community's top news events 52 times a year.

Hostess Club Will Meet to Discuss Yule Contributions

WEST BEVERLY—The West Beverly hostess club will meet Tuesday to discuss their annual Christmas charities. Hostess for the Christmas coffee will be Mrs. George Dettinger of Hillcrest, assisted by Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft and Mrs. R. L. Shugg, Jr.

Heading the committee to decide Christmas contributions, Mrs. Kenneth Hannah of Hillcrest reported that she for the Oakland county children's home will be recommended as gifts this year. Assisted by Mrs. Gordon McMain of Devonshire and Mrs. John Murphy of Beverly, the committee will present their gifts near Christmas. Further charities include jewelry gifts for women in our area's convalescent homes. Members will bring these gifts to the meeting.

Garden Club Plans Yule Decor Award

EAST BEVERLY—A prize for the greatest ingenuity in making and wrapping an exchange gift will be awarded at the Beverly Hills WNFCA Christmas party next Thursday. Mrs. Donald Young of Beverly road will be the hostess. Mrs. Arnold Young, Jr., Mrs. James W. Gray and Mrs. Frank D. Trout will assist her. Mrs. Paul Stocker, publicity director, announced the winter greens market, sponsored by the Michigan horticultural society, which began Tuesday. It will continue through Sunday at the Detroit Historical museum.

To Hold Luncheon

WEST BEVERLY—The West Beverly WNFCA is planning a special midweek luncheon on Dec. 15 at the home of Mrs. Robert Engel of Riverside. Members will exchange garden gifts.

Holiday Decor Sparks Yule Season in Area

WEST BEVERLY—Only 16 "party eves" till Christmas, so holiday plans and even "sparkle" are well laid. The L. H. Langtons of Beaconfield draped tiny Italian lights over an ethereal cotton tree to create holiday atmosphere for a small dinner party next Saturday. By tradition, their green pine is decorated later for the family room.

Mrs. Kenneth Hannah of Hillcrest expects to have her holiday decorating done by the 16th for an Alpha Chi Omega couples' Christmas party.

Some 16 teens—one for every year—surprised Cheryl Zebedeo of Riverside on her birthday last Saturday. 'Twas a buffet and bingo party.

The John Coordes of 14 mile took a Thanksgiving trip to Terre Haute, Ind. to visit relatives on both sides of the family.

The Peter Cadsons of Devonshire welcomed both her parents, of East Lansing, and her sister's family, from Washington, D. C. for Thanksgiving.

The Richard Dahlgrens of Evergreen returned from Jamestown, N.Y. to host a dinner for Marlin & Rockwell associates last Saturday.

VALLEY WOODS—Mrs. John R. Flick of Bellvue trail started planning her holiday cocktail party with nary a breath from organizing both St. Regis' card tournaments.

Sizzling steaks took the chill off last Saturday evening for guests of the Albert Gataward's of Bellvue trail.

Chuck Deuel celebrated his ninth birthday on Eastlady with lunch and movies for five pals. Barbara Kittle on neighboring Westlady celebrated her birthday away from home. She reached her 18th in East Lansing and paraded with MSU friends.

Mrs. E. S. Tooms of Kenoway circle raises our hopes for holiday mail deliveries. After a 20-year lapse, letters from her pen pal in Latvia are arriving monthly.

Seems that her USSR correspondent of ninth-grade days suddenly rediscovered her old home-town address. A post office sleuth forwarded the first letter from Hancock, where only a cousin now resides.

Dr. and Mrs. James McHugh of Eastlady invited seven couples for cocktails prior to the St. Joseph hospital benefit at Pine Lake last Saturday. Going on to the dance with their hosts were Dr. and Mrs. Donald Bergeron of Bloomfield and the Thomas Wrights of Bellvue.

EAST BEVERLY—The Nelson E. Phillips of Sheridan gave a cocktail reception and midnight buffet for the entire troop of Canadian players after their recent "Julius Caesar" here. Son Nelson, sole American in the cast, will return Christmas, when the company takes a holiday recess.

The Vincent Maeshers remembered Christmas when they planned prizes for the duplicate bridge club last Saturday. Winners left Lauderdale last Christmas with Christmas ornaments, cocktail napkins and favors.

The G. Fred Schaefer formally "warned" their new home at 2271 Arlington with a party for his old school friends recently—not newcomers—only new neighbors. The family including Jerry, Jr., Ginger, almost 5, and Gilbert, 2 1/2, are but a short walk from their old home on Hrogoklawm, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Van Wormer of Glencoe gathered other new Hills couples for cocktails last Saturday, prior to the newcomers party at Hillcrest.

Hoping for a Lion victory Dec. 11, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moss of Auburn are planning a buffet for twenty after the game.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Mrs. Robert Bouwman of Leemoor is planning a party Dec. 18, around pictures taken during her recent trip to Scotland. Co-hostess will be her mother who accompanied her with a special bow to dad, David Young of Detroit, who baby-sat while they were away.

One of his "charges," Leslie, celebrated her 16th birthday Nov. 27 with a buffet supper for twenty teens that sister, Nancy helped plan.

Mrs. Joseph A. Lekar's date book is filling fast this December. She's hostess on Wednesday for Our Lady of Lourdes guild Christmas buffet. A week later her card club parties there. And in the offing is the Lekar's annual holiday open house on Plantation lane.

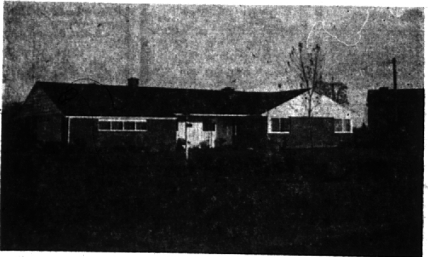

"You're going to give it all away, Mommy," four-year-old Alan Kurk warned. But Mrs. Frank Kurk of Embassy and 20 friends hope the secret and the catered celebration last Sunday evening was a complete birthday surprise to her husband.

BEST BUY!

Snow covered the ground when two years ago this home sold for $30,500 and was considered a good buy. Today due to owner's transfer you can buy it for $26,500 making it, we believe, the best buy in this entire area. Located in a fine wooded area near Birmingham and Parochial Schools, it has 3 good sized Bedrooms, a paneled Family Room with built in Bar, 2 Fireplaces, large screened Porch, roomy Garage and hot water heating system that's the finest. See it today - it'll be love at first sight.

SALE OR LEASE

The owner of this delightful Hickory Heights home is anxious to well sell for cash, land contract or will lease at $275.00 with option to buy. Located in distinctive Hickory Heights near Birmingham and Parochial Schools, this nearly new home has built in Kitchen fixtures, 3 extra large Bedrooms, large Living Room and Family Room with Butternut paneling, the landscaping is expertly done and there are city sewers in the subdivision. We're sure you'll like this home and it's an exceptional buy at $33,900.

AT MEADOW LAKE

This luxury BiLevel home has everything. 5 Super Bedrooms, a lower level Activities Room that's out of this world, paneled Den, all floor to ceiling windows are Thermopane, built in GE Kitchen equipment with freezer-refrigerator, heat and plumbing equipment are the finest and the lawn is of Merion Blue Grass. Designed by Harold Wright and built by Kimmick, it's one of the finest homes we've seen. The owner is transferred to Ohio and you can move right in!

IN THE VILLAGE

Rarely will you find a lovely 3-Bedroom Colonial on a tree-lined street at a price comparable to this one. There are 3 Bedrooms and Den, a pine-paneled Recreation Room, Kitchen with Breakfast space and a separate Dining Room. The full price is $33,900 and this home may be purchased on land contract with $6,000.00 down. See it today - You'll love it!

BROOCK

300 S. Woodward

MI 4-6700

LOW WINTER PRICES NOW . . . ELLIS, MODERNIZERS SINCE 1945

ROOMS - ATTIC, BASEMENT, ACTIVITIES
ADDITIONS - ALTERATIONS, GARAGES, ETC.
ALUMINUM - SIDING, WINDOWS, AWNINGS
FREE ESTIMATES

TERMS MI 6-4188 FE 2-2671

TO BUY, SELL OR TRADE

Birmingham, Bloomfield or Franklin Properties

WALSH REAL ESTATE CO.

361 South Woodward • Birmingham, Michigan
(In the Bloomfield Theatre Building)
MIDWEST 6-1800

5 Bedrooms

5 BIG, GRACIOUS Bedrooms, 3 full baths and 2 powder rooms, all combine to make this Gracious home truly convenient for the family who needs "room to breathe", from the dramatic slate foyer you step down a few steps into the 18 x 27 ft. living room with large oak doors opening into the cozy LIBRARY. Fun-filled 28 ft. ACTIVITIES ROOM, and over an acre of beautiful trees right in the heart of Bloomfield Hills. Gas heat - Carpeted - Immediate Possession. Call us TODAY. $47,500.

Chamberlain real estate co.

Service the objective - Integrity the creed

JO 6-3866

975 S. Hunter Blvd.
Birmingham, Michigan

MI 6-6000