So long as mankind is beset with the need to improve its mental and spiritual natures, just so long are there real challenging frontiers to overcome. Today's human environment has resulted in mankind's ability to blaze physical trails, then broad highways, cover most of the earth's surface; yet the problems and troubles remaining offer even more challenges in wiping out ignorance, prejudice, etc.

Festival Program Slated For AAUW Luncheon

A festival program inspired by the current exhibition of Flemish art at the Detroit Institute of Arts and starring members of the AAUW, will be given Dec. 14 in the Birmingham community house.

The cultural impact of this exhibit has been felt by chairmen, Mrs. David H. Goodfellow and Mrs. C. Knight Houghton, who have unearthed considerable talent to present this Christmas program at the AAUW monthly luncheon.

"VIRGIN AND CHILD in an Apse" by a Master of Flemish will be inspiration for a tableau directed by Mrs. M. A. Remondino and Mrs. L. E. Quinn. Mrs. William Milligan will give a reading. Selections by Robert Frost, Ben Johnson, Vivian Campbell and Louisa Mas Neice will be presented by a choral reading group under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Pinta and Mrs. Joseph A. McCain will lead a choir singing three Flemish carols.

DESCRIBED AS a once-in-a-lifetime exhibition, this multi-million dollar showing of the first oil painters has been visited by several AAUW study groups. Another group will take a conducted tour the morning of Dec. 15.

No lessons, no practice. Even if you can't read a note, you can sit down at this new Lowrey Chord Organ and play the familiar melodies you love. And you won't outgrow this new Lowrey because it's really two organs in one—designed to meet the musical needs of the whole family.

It's a satisfying experience—whether you use the chord buttons to "chord along" as you play favorite tunes... or whether you play your Lowrey as a regular 2-keyboard organ. Youngsters, too, can learn to play it... either way.
