

New Home in Cranbrook Village

Elegant living at a moderate price is the keynote of the grand opening of Rodney Lockwood and Company's 1961 built-in home and flower show idea home in Cranbrook Village. The dual-level design is at 29422 Rock Creek Dr., Southfield. The home offers 1,400 square feet of living, featuring a high ceiling and colonial stairway in the large foyer, and is priced at $17,950, including a maximum 62-foot lot to be selected by the home-buyer.

Grand Trunk RR Promotes Troy's Harry A. Sanders

Troy resident Harry A. Sanders, 780 E. Square Lake, has been appointed vice president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Western Railroad in Detroit, the Canadian National system announces. Sanders succeeds Francis A. Gaffney of Detroit, who has been promoted to vice president, high-way services, for the entire Canadian National system. Sanders, who has 40 years of service with the road, had been general superintendent of transportation since 1951.

Long mirrors hung vertically in a room tend to add height to the ceiling, while large rectangular mirrors mounted on the wall give the feeling of width and spaciousness.

afternoon matinee) on the stages of both the Birmingham and Bloomfield theatres. And Lew Betterly tells us that Ole Foerch, who needs no introduction to organ music lovers, will again play Yuletide music at the Detroit Bank & Trust (Woodward-Hamilton branch) daily from 11 to 2, starting today.

McClelland & Son's expansion program is well under way, with the extension of their old building out to line up with the other store fronts on Maple (near Telegraph). The firm handles building and remodeling products, and is maintaining business-as-usual service during their remodeling.

Behind The Store Fronts

The Community House people tell us that for the first time they are offering a business course that should be of considerable interest to business men and women in this area. An accounting-bookkeeping class will start at the Community House Jan. 17. The 10-week class will meet on Tuesdays (8 - 10 p.m.) and will cover double-entry record keeping... basic cycle with financial statements. Robert Schibel, a veteran in the teaching field, will be the instructor. Mrs. Douglas, of Bodine's, is all set to help you with your party needs for the holiday season.
